EPPS'S COCOA

Breakfast.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, by Grocers, labelled thus:

YEAR 1892.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

The Magazine will celebrate the fourth Centenary of the Discovery of America by its rededication, through articles giving a more thorough exposition than has hitherto been made of the Recent Unprecedented Development of our country and especially in the Great West. Particular attention will also be given to Dramatic episodes of American History.

The Field of the next European War will be described in a Series of Papers on the Danube "From the Black Forest to the Black Sea," by Poulitnev Bigelow and F. D. Millet, illustrated by Mr. Millet and Alfred Parsons. Articles will also be given on the German, Austrian, and Italian Armies, illustrated by T. de Thulstrup.

Mr. W. D. Howells will contribute a new novel "A World of Chance," characteristically American. Especial prominence will be given to short stories, which will be contributed by T. B. Aldrich, R. H. Davis, A. Conan Doyle, Margaret Deland, Miss Woolson, and other popular writers.

Among the literary features will be Personal Reminiscences of Nathaniel Hawthorne, by his college class-mate and life-long friend, Horatio Bridge, and a Personal Memoir of the Brownings, by Anne Thackeray Ritchie.

Recent Shooting Affray.
BELLEVILLE, Nov. 18.—Stanley BOWER, man, who shot Emery Ferguson at the Salvation army barracks, Bloomfield, has been arrested and lodged in Picton jail. The victim, according to the last accounts, was lying between life and death, with the bullet still in his body. Joe Rogers who was present, says that the row arose over a girl. Ferguson had come out of the meeting at ten o'clock, and, slipping up to the two girls, asked if he could see them home. As he did so a stone fell near them, and Ferguson went to discover who threw it. He met Bowerman, who threatened to run him out of town. The men got into a fight, when Ferguson's revolver was discharged into his abdomen.

Bell Rock.
The last of this season's chere was shipped last week by Vanluven Bros.
It is with profound regret we have to record the death of Mrs. Mary Coffee, who has held the office of postmistress in this place for many years. At the first of the illness there was a slight hope of her recovery, but despite the aid of the best medical skill and the ministrations of kind friends she failed rapidly, and finally sank to rest on the morning of the 16th.

Violet.
The reopening services in connection with the Methodist church, Violet, Wilton circuit, will be held on Sunday and Monday, 13th and 14th Dec. Two services will be held on Sunday, and on Monday a tea will be served by the ladies of the congregation, after which addresses, recitations, and music will be given by friends from a distance. Look out for large bills.

FASTED FOR FIVE WEEKS.
Montreal, November the 16th.—Mr. Morand, a farmer of St. Jerome, while on his way to work in a field some distance from his house recently, was startled to find beneath a roadside tree what to him seemed a dead body, emaciated almost beyond all semblance of human form. Mr. Morand raised the prostrate woman, and with the assistance of some neighbors drove her to a friend's house in St. Jerome. There she recovered sufficiently to tell an incoherent story of her sufferings, but insanity was

THE SUM AND SUBSTANCE
of it all. Repeated inquiries by Mr. Morand elicited the fact that the poor victim of starvation was the widow of a Mr. Gratin, a resident of the village, who had died during the past summer. Furthermore he learned that the young woman—of twenty five or thereabouts—was wont to visit the spot where he found her dying. She and her husband would sit under that tree for hours during the warm evenings; and the only reasonable theory is that, crazed by her bereavement she wandered out to the woods which to her were hallowed by so many happy memories. This hypothesis is borne out by all the circumstances known to the relatives of the poor unfortunate.

THE LAST THEY SAW OF HER
was when she left her home about Oct. 10 last to go to the village church. Failing to return the most earnest search for her was instituted, but without success, and her late husband's friends concluded that she had, in her dependency, lost herself in the woods and perished from exposure. Her total abstinence from food however is an established fact. A brook, some yards from the tree under which she was found supplied her with drink while she was strong enough to reach it. Otherwise, for the five weeks she maintained an unbroken fast, and yet she may recover health and strength.

POLITICAL AND GENERAL.

The election petitions against Porter (ref.) M.P.P. and McNeil (con.) M.P. in North Bruce, have both been dismissed.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was accorded an enthusiastic reception at Boston, Mass., last night on the occasion of the complimentary banquet tendered him by the French-Canadians of that city.

Hamilton Times.—Mr. Chapleau wishes the Ontario Conservatives to understand that their National Policy and their Old Flag are not drawing cards in the Province of Quebec. Something more reasonable, more tangible and more substantial must be put before the people upon whom he and his colleagues depend for voters. "If you want me to assist in keeping your protective tariff in operation," he says in effect, "you must place in my hands the machinery with which to obtain votes. Let me have the appointment of station masters, conductors and brakemen on the Intercolonial line, let me purchase the supplies for that road; let me subsidize new roads in doubtful constituencies and arrange for spending government money where the expenditure will do most good, and I can get you a Quebec majority. Without tools to work with I cannot carry elections, and your National Policy will be doomed at the same time I go out of office." This is the essence of Mr. Chapleau's message to the Ontario Conservatives.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The soldiers of Odessa garrison have voluntarily agreed that the daily bread ration issued to them be reduced one-third for the benefit of the starving people in the famine-stricken districts. Self-sacrifice for the benefit of the starving people is general among all classes and often takes novel forms. Reports from the famine-stricken districts of the empire continue to show the despair and suffering entailed upon the poorer classes by the scarcity of food. The Government is fully alive to the exigencies of the situation, and is doing everything in its power to help the sufferers. The Czar has made a very large donation from his private purse in addition to turning over to the Famine Committee the sums of money presented to him upon the occasion of his silver wedding. The Czarina too has given freely, and other members of the imperial family have helped to swell the fund for the relief of the poor. Large as the subscriptions are, they are but a drop in the ocean of money that will be required to carry the thousands upon thousands of peasant, small farmers and others through the long winter.

Surely Mr. Mercier's opponents will not complain of the prompt steps he has taken to have an investigation of the charges against himself and his government, which have been based upon the statements of John P. Whelan. Mr. McShane, one of the parties accused, has brought a suit for libel against the Empire, and the whole matter will be ventilated in the civil courts, at an early date, as no doubt the Conservative organ will plead justification and will endeavor to prove its statements. And Mr. Mercier has commenced criminal proceedings against Whelan and others for conspiracy and seditious libel. This will afford a further opportunity for investigation, and the full ventilation of all the charges which the Tory papers have been making against the Quebec government. As to Mr. Whelan, he appears to be utterly discredited. The statements he recently communicated to the Empire are flatly contradicted by a sworn declaration which he signed eighteen months ago, and unless the persons who are to be prosecuted for libel have some more reliable testimony than the statements of Whelan they are likely to fare very badly. It is highly probable that, in their great anxiety to make it appear that Mr. Mercier is as corrupt as the federal ministers, the Tory organs have got themselves into serious trouble.

There is great rejoicing among British Liberals over the magnificent victory won by the party candidate in the South Molten division of Devonshire on Friday. The result, which elected a supporter of

CASES OF INCENDIARISM AT BELLEVILLE. FEARS THAT THE CITY WOULD BE DESTROYED.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 16.—An attempt was made to cause extensive fires here last night. A strong wind was blowing at the time. The fire started in the lower end of the city and continued almost in a straight line to the upper bridge. Smoke was discovered issuing from Mrs. Bonter's barn on Wharf street about 10.30 o'clock. The building with contents was worth $300 and was insured for $200 in the Mercantile. The firemen had not left the premises when the tug Bonar, owned by Capt John Bonar was discovered to be on fire. The boat was tied up for the winter at the Union Elevator. The efforts of firemen to save the tug were fruitless, and she was soon burned to the water's edge, when she sank. She was valued at $5,000, being insured in the Caledonian for $2,000. Nothing on board was saved, and her machinery will be of little value. The weary firemen had hardly finished their labors in the lower end of the city when an alarm rang out again at 2.30 a.m. This time fire was discovered in Patrick Fitzpatrick's barns, Front street, next to No. 2 Fire Station. It was not long doing its work of destruction, and spreading west to R. Elvin's grocery, did damage to the extent of $150 to the rear part. From here the fire ran along into the storehouse in Walker's foundry, in which were stored a varied assortment of machinery and a number of valuable patterns and flasks. Besides the foundry supplies, there were destroyed several tons of coal, a plough-bending machine, and much other stuff. The loss to the Walker Company will be over $2,000. The building and contents were insured in the City of London and Etna for $150, and also in the Mercantile. All the barns and buildings in connection with Fitzpatrick's hotel were totally destroyed, including a fine bowling alley. Some of the contents, including live stock, were saved. Mr. Fitzpatrick's loss will be $2,000. The buildings were insured in the Etna for $1,000. The fire then leaped across the river and attacked James Serich's buildings, Moira street. Sparks and smoke literally filled the air, and it was feared at one time that all that part of the city would go. Some sparks fell on Mr. Serich's dwelling, and the house was soon on fire, damage to the extent of $600 being done. It was only by the most persistent efforts of the family and several workmen that the building was saved from total destruction. Mr. Serich had the house insured in the Citizens' and Lancashire for $3,600. Following in a direct line northeast the house occupied by Mrs. Low and the house next, occupied by a family named Beckett, became ignited in the roofs, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Several other houses along the line of the fire were also slightly damaged by sparks falling on the roofs.

MURDER AT LONSDALE.

Died From Brutal Treatment.

A tragedy is reported from Lonsdale, Hastings county. A ploughing bee was held on the farm of Walter Casey, Tyendinaga, last Thursday afternoon. Several men got drinking, as usual on such occasions. Two men got into a quarrel, when Murt Ford, son of Michael Ford undertook to separate them or interfere in the quarrel. A young man, named James McGinnis, is alleged to have seized a club and struck Ford three fearful blows. Ford was brought to Lonsdale, where he was attended by Dr. Whiteman. He presented a fearful sight, the cerebral fluid and blood oozing out of his ears. He lingered until Tuesday morning, when he died from concussion of the brain. Dr. Wilson, coroner, of Belleville, held an inquest this Tuesday afternoon. His head was battered in a terrible manner. McGinnis had used a piece of rail to do the work. Ford received both blows just behind the ears which completely crushed his skull. When it was given out by the attending physician that the unfortunate victim could not live—McGinnis disappeared on Sunday since which time he has not been heard of. Constable Johnston could not find Interesting Items Picked up by our Busy Correspondents.

Point Petre.

Mr. James Scott is very poorly. It has been raining rather heavy lately. The wild geese are around calling on the buckwheat fields again. We hear that Mr. Will McCartney has joined the matrimonial circle. We wish him much joy. The Smith family are to be with us on Monday evening, at the Union. We expect to have a crowded house. Mr. Shepard has care of the church for the next year. A number of our citizens celebrated Thanksgiving day on the farms. Mr. Waring has sold the place worked by Mr. Starks, to Messrs. J. and G. Martin.

Newburgh.

On Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 12th, a Union Thanksgiving Service of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, of Newburgh, was held in the Methodist church. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. Wilson, Gandier, Tucker, and Williams, and by Mr. Dunwoodie, of Buffalo. The choir rendered music appropriate to the occasion. This is the first Union service held in Newburgh, and was a decided success. Next year the service will be held in the Presbyterian church. On the evening of the same day the ladies of the Methodist congregation gave a pumpkin pie social in the basement of the church, followed by a concert given by the choir and others in the body of the church. The proceeds were about $25.00.

Tamworth.

Mr. Chas. Sherman, of Kingston, and Mr. C. H. Rose, of Toronto spent Thanksgiving with their parents. Mr. Jas. Smith has purchased the residence of Mr. Perry. Mrs. Eagle and son intend removing to Yarker on Thursday. Mr. Geo. Lafountain leaves here Friday for Tweed where he intends opening up a barber shop. Success, George. On Saturday last a large shooting match was held. Dr. Clark and Thos. Hodge being captains. After game was counted they all adjourned to Huffman's house for oysters to celebrate the departure of Mr. Chas. Shuman and Thos. Wickett. They spent a very pleasant evening. We wish them every success in their new fields of labour.

Arden.

The dedication and tea in connection with Mount Hope Church is announced to take place on Tuesday Dec. 15th. Our village boasts three blacksmiths all doing good business. N. Wormworth the ever ready. F. Wormworth the attentive and the owner of the only telephone in town and Norman Scott the cheerful. The new bell for our village church has arrived. We hope our village folks will now become noted for regularity and promptness at church. Mr. Norman Scott had a most successful wood "bee" on Saturday last. Men and horses wrought with zest. Thirty cords of wood was hauled from the forest and left by the home door. Our people know how to show neighborly kindness. Rev. W. B. Tucker is visiting friends at Napanee Mills this week. The new mail contract for carrying the mail between Tamworth and Arden has secured by Mr. John Babcock.

Darlington.

The Methodist Sabbath School will hold a Christmas tree, on the evening of Xmas Day. This event always is a wonderful success and if hard work will accomplish anything, the coming event will eclipse all previous effort. Only three times during the last sixteen years has Captain Porte been absent from his post on the staunch little steamer when Erinsville.

Nothing but rain and mud. Mr. Caughlin is building a large drive house for Mr. Crawford. Phelan's grand annual ball will take place the Monday after Xmas Dec 28th. Mrs R. Mahoney is very ill. John's older girls well and it won't make you sick either. Joe is a poet and he don't know it.

Bath.

In tracing the results of many things over which we can have no control, we often realise the truthfulness of the adage that it is an ill-wind that blows nobody good. Without doubt the low water in the bay at this season of the year is the cause of a great rush of shipping business from this port. At times the streets and lanes are literally blackened with teams laden with barley, buckwheat, pressed hay, cheese &c. During the past few weeks not unfrequently had the passengers of the Hero to be landed over the decks of schooners lying in the harbor. On the morning of the 12th ult. the schr. T. H. Burton left Bath for Oswego with a cargo of 12,000 bus barley and in the evening of the same day she fetched up in Kingston harbor in a sadly demoralized condition, but with cargo and crew all safe, also 310 lbs of the captain well preserved. C. Gildersleeve has bought out the Burley stage between Bath and Kingston. We understand that a grist of incorrigibles are to be ground in the justice mill of Napanee. In view of certain indications Mr. Hogle has imported a quantity of marriage licenses. Mr. L. Armstrong has removed to the new residence of Miss Hawley, Centre St.

Gull Creek.

The weather is remarkable for this time of year. We have no snow worth mentioning this fall, and very little rain, for this reason we say the water is so remarkably low. We have never witnessed it the same during the years we have lived in this place. There are some who are taking advantage of this favorable fall by clearing and breaking up sod land ready for the spring. By the appearance of things at present swamp lands will have but very little ice in them this winter. Mr. Wm. Cade and his family who went away to Colorado a year ago last spring, came back about the middle of October and are settled on their old place again. Willie Cade with some others were successful in capturing a couple of fine deer recently not far from this place. Our local hunters would be glad over a few inches of snow, enough for to make a track, then they would keep the fur going. A crack here and there is heard, but it is the poor partridge that is the sports mark at present. Quite a stir in the neighborhood. Mr. Archibald Robertson has just moved back home. Mr. Fred Kirkpatrick and Mr. Henry York and his family have moved down to Tamworth. Mr. Albert Woodcock and the old people have moved into York's place. Miss Laura Woodcock and Master Norman Woodcock, from the high school, Napanee, paid a visit home the latter part of last week. The Rev. Mr. Jolliffe, Tamworth, preached at our school house last night. He is highly esteemed by the people in this locality. Welcome, come again.

Odesa.

W. Timmerman, C.P.R. agent at Ivanhoe, spent Sunday in town. Miss Lena Watts, of Syracuse, N.Y., is visiting her Odesa friends. From here she goes to St. John's, N.B. to spend the winter. Our esteemed citizen, Mr. J. H. Babcock, hath taken unto himself a wife. Miss Annie C. Martin, of Wilton, is the happy bride. George Thomas, an old resident of this town, died very suddenly on Sunday.

thousand majority at the general election, returned a Gladstonian Home Ruler by over two hundred majority on Friday. This tremendous turn over indicates very clearly that in the south western counties of England, where the Liberals lost heavily on the Home Rule issue, the electors are returning to their allegiance, and that the Liberal party is stronger than ever. In framing platforms made up of a ton of Toryism to a pound of radicalism the followers of Lord Salisbury are doing their cause no good, and in predicting success for their party at the next election they are simply following the example of the ostrich, which sticks its head in the sand and imagines it is safe from pursuit. Notwithstanding the unfortunate occurrences in Ireland, out of which Mr. Chamberlain has been trying to make capital, the British masses are rallying to the support of Mr. Gladstone and his programme of positive and progressive reform. The Molten victory is the answer of Devonshire to the declarations of the recent Tory convention in favor of perpetuating an established church and a hereditary house of peers, and also an endorsement of Mr. Gladstone's one man one vote proposition.

THE MISSION.

Church of St. Mary Magdalene.

The arrangements are now complete for "The Mission" to begin (P.V.) on Monday next, Nov. 25th. The missionary will arrive on that day, and the introductory service will be held in the evening. This will consist of a service of welcome, and the formal induction of the missionary to his temporary charge, after which the first address will be given. The mission will last for ten days, during which services will be conducted as specified in the published programme. The most prominent feature of each day's proceedings will be the MISSION SERMON each evening at 7.30 o'clock, followed by a course of instruction in the way of holiness. The services during the day will be chiefly for purposes of interest and will be of more interest to lay helpers and those engaged in the work of the mission, though special opportunities will be offered from time to time to different classes to hear instruction and management in those dangers and difficulties which are peculiar to their different conditions. Then on Thursday afternoon at 4.15 the Mission to Children will begin. It will consist of a familiar talk with the children (especially members of the Sunday School) and blackboard illustrations will be given in order the better to impress the children. Sunday School teachers are recommended to take advantage of this opportunity of gaining experience in their work. The 5 p.m. services on Monday 30th and following days will be chiefly for women, and the addresses will be directed especially to their need.

—It was expected that on Sunday next the Lord Bishop of Algoma, Dr. Sullivan, would have preached the sermons preparatory to the mission, but unfortunately he has been called to a distant part of his distant diocese. The Rev. Canon Dumoulin of the cathedral, Toronto, has been invited at the last moment to take his place. It is hoped that he will be able to come but there has not been time to receive an answer.

Service for Men.

A Service for MEN ONLY will be held in the town Hall on Sunday afternoon Nov. 29. Addresses by the Missioner, by Major C. B. Mayne R. E. and by local speakers. Further particulars next week.

—There will be no collection during the Mission except the regular Sunday offertory. Those benefited by the mission will be asked to make an offering on leaving the church. This will be devoted to meeting the expenses of the mission.

Programmes of the Mission issued next week.

—Don't forget the hot maple Sugar and hickory nut social on Tuesday 24th in Town Hall Napanee.

—Complaints have been made against two of our hotels for violation of the liquor license act by selling liquor during prohibited hours.

Milk Case Adjourned.

On Tuesday some eighteen cases for supplying deteriorated milk to the Newburgh, Enterprise, Moscow and Forest Mills cheese factories were heard before Police Magistrate James Daly. The cases in connection with the Newburgh factory were adjourned to 24th for decision. Enterprise and Moscow factories, adjourned until Monday 23rd and Forest Mills until Saturday 28th.

any trace of him on Tuesday, although he made a thorough search of the neighborhood and will at once set the wires in motion. He is very annoyed that the facts of this affray were not communicated to the authorities before the man's death, when McGinnis would now be under arrest for his crime. Mr. Johnston will return to Lonsdale at once and make a careful search for the man. The following corner's jury was empanelled at 4 p.m. Tuesday: Dennis Neelan, foreman; John Bruin, Alex. Winters, Mike Williams, Dennis Callaghan, Donald McRae, Albert Banien, James Fanan, Donald Callaghan, Alfred Pannan, John Callaghan, Robt. Winters. The jury adjourned until Friday next.

Personals.

—Mr. John Woodcock and sister, of Prince Edward, spent a few days in town this week with friends.

—Miss Edith Martin, of Prince Edward, spent a few days in town this week with friends.

—Mr. Marsden Kemp Piano Tuner of Kingston will be in town for a few days yet.

—The James Duff and wife, of Picton, have returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in town.

—Mr. James Burrell is at home spending a month with his family.

—Mr. B. W. Snider, Insurance agent, is at present in Belleville assisting his father W. H. Snider run off his stock of boots and shoes. He will return about the last of the month.

—Mrs. M. T. Ostrom and children, of Peterboro have been visiting her mother Mrs. T. Casey, Piety Hill, during the past week.

—Mr. James McGrath, Typo, of Toronto, is spending a week's holidays renewing old acquaintances in town.

—Judge Wilkinson and wife were in Kingston on Tuesday.

—Miss Mabel Shibley, of Albert College, Belleville, spent a few days at home last week visiting her parents.

Obituary.

Charlotte Force Clancy, daughter of Rev. James P. and Sarah Force, and wife of Rev. Rockwell Clancy, went to her eternal reward, from the home of Rev. Jacob Clancy, of Albion, on Sabbath evening, Nov. 1. Nearly eight years ago, she went with her husband to India to labor as a missionary. Three years were spent at Lucknow, and nearly three years at Agra where Mrs. Clancy had charge of the home for native christian girls who were studying medicine in the government college. In the autumn of '99 her health which had been failing for some time became seriously broken. She was urged to return to America but preferred to go with her husband to Rangoon, Barmah, where he had been transferred. In June 1900, her physicians said that she must return to America immediately. On last Sabbath evening she was suffering very much. She was carried into the sitting room, and as the family gathered around her she said "Sing! They sang "Jesus, Lover of my Soul." Then she said, "Sing! "Rock of Ages" and "Go bury thy sorrow." Later, she asked her husband, "Do you think it will be long? Where is the master that He does not come? It is time! It is true!" Her husband asked her, "Is the prospect clear?" She replied, "O yes! I am going to that exciting great glory. I have no fear but that it will be as I have trusted." Shortly after, she asked to be raised up and then said, "Lay me down." In a moment without a struggle, she was gone. Up to the last moment, her mind was perfectly clear and she met death without shrinking. Her life was beautiful; her death triumphant. The funeral took place on Nov. 4th. It was her request that great simplicity be observed in the arrangements. She said "Let there be no signs of gloomy sadness but keep the house as bright as possible and have plenty of flowers." The casket was pure white, with beautiful flowers the gifts of kind friends, strewn over it. The hearse was white and the grave draped with white and evergreen.

morning. Twice his absence was occasioned by the death of relations and once he was detained by a subpoena in Picton.

Willie Borrow, one of the number of young lads who are addicted to steal when they can get a chance, was locked in the cells for a night and then dismissed with a warning. The Chief has his eye upon a number of these lads and there will be trouble if they persist in loafing about night or day.

H. Corby, M.P., had an interview at Ottawa last week with the Minister of Justice with reference to the commutation of sentence of a young man named Driscoll and two brothers Lloyd, who are serving a term in the Kingston penitentiary for indecent assault upon a girl. Mr. Corby pointed out the facts were produced since the trial to show that the assault which was committed on the girl was by a brother of the two Lloyds whom the court acquitted. It is probable that their sentence will be reduced.

Work is now under way for the erection of the Deseronto Creamery at the corner of the Boudry and Slash roads. Mr. John McCullough is pushing the matter ahead with his accustomed energy, being determined to do all in his power to advance the interest of the farmers in this vicinity. Farmers who will keep up their milk cows will, no doubt find a good market for their product.

Mr T Butler has already engaged a strong force of men for lumbering operations on the Moira and its tributaries.

Mr. Thos. Callaghan, who had his leg broken at Campbellford, is now in Kingston consulting Dr. Sullivan.

The damage done to the north west corner of the roof of Christ Church, Mohawk Reserve, by a cyclone last week is to be repaired immediately. We understand that improvements are also about to be made to the interior especially about the chancel.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School have purchased a new piano. It is a "Williams" square and was bought from Mr. John Dalton, the Deseronto agent.

Morven.

The weather still continues quite warm. It is raining to beat the band this morning. This rain is just what we want. The wells and creeks are very low and will require a great deal of water before winter sets in.

Mrs. Frazer and Mr. Raymond are improving slowly and are in a fair way for recovery.

Mr. Jas Robinson has been quite ill but is recovering.

Thanksgiving service was held in the White church Sunday morning. The Rev. J. Garbutt assisted our pastor.

On Monday evening of last week, the Rev. Jewel, of the Bay Circuit, took charge of the meeting at the Lutheran, our pastor being away on other business. On Tuesday evening of the same week, a contingent of the Salvation Army from Napanee came down and took part in the meeting. The meetings were a grand success last week and are being continued this week. This is the eleventh week since they have started. Our pastor took charge of the meeting there on Sunday evening, while the Rev. John Garbutt, a young man who resided in this vicinity about a year ago and who is now a minister, filled the pulpit at the Brick church to the satisfaction of all who had the pleasure of listening to him.

Mr. John G. Smith and family, left on Tuesday of last week, for their farm near Brockville. Mrs. C. Smith and daughters, who have occupied part of the house since John was there, have moved to Mr. Frank Vanslyck's. Mr. Will Garrison, I believe, intends moving on the farm next spring and working it.

Dame rumour says that the little man living on the corner is about to take unto himself an helpmeet. Frank has set the ball rolling now, and there is no telling when nor where it will stop.

I have it on good authority that W. B. Perry intends giving up his school at Violet and has been engaged to teach our school next year. We will all come to school when you get here Walter.

Another new arrival in the village. It's a boy this time. James, of course, looks inexpressibly happy.

The sky clouded over Sunday evening just in time to prevent us seeing the eclipse of the moon.

Miss Maggie Lloyd has arrived home from Belleville. She likes the place so well that she is going back in a short time to make a visit and take in all the sights. Be careful Maggie that you don't take in some young man.

Visitors.—Mr. Phippen, Bath, Miss Daisy Jewel, Miss Jennie Amey Napanee; Miss Lou Mallett, Picton Model School.

The funeral took place on Monday from the residence of Mrs. Allen.

Misses Weene and Perry, of Enterprise, are the guests of Miss Frankie Cairns.

Arthur and Miss Mary Vanslyck, of Morven, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Frank Denyes.

The evening service in the Methodist church will commence at 6.30 p.m. during the winter season, the change taking effect next Sunday night.

The sermon in the Methodist church next evening will be especially for young men.

The Thanksgiving service was fairly well attended, the village people turning out well. The farmers thinking of the adverse fiscal policy, the scandals and other legislative evils that militate against their prosperity stayed at home. The Rev. Mr. Lambert delivered a timely address, one very apt remark being that he considered it advisable to hold a day of national humiliation instead of thanksgiving.

The social in the basement of the church on Thanksgiving night was well attended. The audience was treated to a choice literary and musical programme. Refreshments were served during the evening.

As the result of a week of unusual activity in toughdom, the magistrates' court experienced a boom. The case of Constable Peters vs. George Babcock, resulted in that gentleman being mulcted for $1 and costs. The case of Giddy vs. Shultz for indecent language was withdrawn. H. S. Davy, J.P., was the presiding magistrate.

The hotelkeepers of this place have entered into a covenant not to sell or in any way to convey any spirituous liquors to seven of our habitual drunkards. This action meets with public favor and will be duly appreciated by all. The agreement lasts for one year.

Mr. W. A. Baker, of the Odessa meat market, found it necessary to move his mammoth ice house. The structure was exposed too much to the sun. Messrs. Geo. Ferguson and J. W. Denyes engineered the job.

Some of our enterprising young business men, despite the McKinley tariff are buying beans for the New York markets.

Mr. Patton, agent for the "Star" chemical fire extinguisher, was in town last week in the interests of that company. To give a practical exhibition of its efficacy to fight the flames, a number of packing cases were built up in the road, making a structure of 10x12 in dimensions. This was thoroughly saturated with coal oil and set on fire. Mr. Patton, with the use of the machine, which when charged only weighs twenty pounds, extinguished the fire in about fifteen seconds. They claim for it the capacity to extinguish 3000 cubic feet of flames.

Where, oh where, is our esteemed truant officer? Has he no mercy for the school section? Living in luxury and ease, enjoying the emoluments of office, does he not see those young rascals free from parental and "school marm" control holding high carnival on the mill pond. These the future statesmen of Canada, neglecting their primary education and depleting the treasury through a decreased government grant. Does the gentleman consider this office a sinecure?

Chief Constable Peters covered himself with glory Tuesday night by capturing a man who had been wanted at Tamworth since September 20th, for an indecent assault on a little girl thirteen years of age. The girl was the adopted daughter of John Armstrong, of the Township of Sheffield, and prisoner, Henry Cole, formerly of Odessa, was engaged as hired man on the next farm, owned by one Burns. The girl was driving the cattle through the fields to water when Cole who was concealed sprang up and catching her by the hair, threw her to the ground. Not content with this brutality he pressed his knees heavily on her stomach and struck her on the breast with clenched fists, and it was not until he had completely prostrated her that he succeeded in accomplishing his desires. The prisoner has succeeded in avoiding arrest up to Tuesday night, when growing bold he ventured an appearance in Odessa. Constable Peters deserves great credit for the manner in which he kept the man till Chief Perry of Tamworth arrived Wednesday morning with a warrant for his arrest. Constable Peters succeeded in winning the confidence of Cole by engaging him for winter's work, and great was that individual's surprise when he discovered himself to be in the toils of the law. It is to be hoped that he will receive the punishment he so richly deserves.

—Henry Cole was brought before Police Magistrate Daly on Thursday. The Magistrate reserved his decision for a day or so.

A Voice From Scotland.

DEAR SIR,—I can highly recommend Haggard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured my daughter of a cough she had been troubled with since childhood. She is now twelve years old. Mrs. M. FAIRCHILD, Scotland, Ont.

"German Syrup"

We have selected two or three lines from letters freshly received from parents who have given German Syrup to their children in the emergencies of Croup. You will credit these, because they come from good, substantial people, happy in finding what so many families lack—a medicine containing no evil drug, which mother can administer with confidence to the little ones in their most critical hours, safe and sure that it will carry them through.

ED. L. WILLIAMS, Alma, Neb. I give it to my children when troubled with Croup and never saw any preparation act like it. It is simply miraculous.

Fully one-half of our customers are mothers who use Boschee's German Syrup among their children. A medicine to be successful with the little folks must be a treatment for the sudden and terrible foes of childhood, whooping cough, croup, diphtheria and the dangerous inflammations of delicate throats and lungs. @

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, NOV. 20, 1891.

QUITE a sensation was caused in Tory circles one day last week when the Empire's Montreal correspondent sent that paper what purported to be some facts elicited from contractor Whelan, highly colored and a "sensationalized" by the Empire's factotum. The correspondence appeared in the Empire of November 12th. "Boodle" was said to have been paid to the following:

Hon. H. Mercier.....	$13,750
Hon. H. Mercier and C.A. Beausoleil, M.P.....	23,500
Hon. H. Mercier and Ernest Pasand Achille Carrier, M.P.P. for Gaspé.....	17,000
Hon. Charles Langelier.....	2,550
Hon. P. Garneau and others.....	2,500
Hon. A. Turcotte, ex Attorney-General.....	4,950
R. Prescott, M.P.'s law office, of which Hon. J. E. Robidoux is a partner.....	2,650
Hon. James McShane, Mayor of Montreal.....	18,500
Sundry Liberals.....	7,100
Dominion elections, 1887.....	8,000
	14,500

Grand total.....$115,000

Mr. Whelan was contractor for the Quebec Court House, and the sums paid by him are alleged to have been paid out of the large profits of the job, which the Montreal Gazette says should cost no more than $250,000, but which has already cost $900,000. Referring to Mr. Whelan, the Ottawa Free Press of Nov. 14th says:

"There appears to be very little doubt that Mr. Whelan, the contractor gave to the Empire's Montreal correspondent the statements published by that paper referring to alleged payments by Whelan to leading Quebec Liberals, but Mr. Whelan has since denied having given any such information, in the presence of witnesses. This is sufficient to discredit any statement he has made or may make in reference to the matter."

The following appeared in the Globe on Monday:

QUEBEC, Nov. 14.—Hon Mr. Mercier, having had the opinion of his colleagues in the Whelan scandal, as revealed in The Empire, gave instructions this morning to Messrs. Dunbar & Amyot, the Crown prosecutors for this district, to have the editors, publishers and correspondents of the following newspapers, who published or produced the Whelan charges, as given in the Empire, arrested, and to have them prosecuted on criminal charges:—The Empire, Gazette, Le Monde, La Presse, Courrier du Canada, with Messrs. Mosher & Whelan. The prosecutions referred to are taken under the English common law against seditious libel, it being an high offence and misdemeanor to bring organized government into disrepute and to try to overthrow the existing institutions of a country by the publication of false and aditious statements for the purpose of poisoning the public mind. The Daily Telegram and the other evening papers have published a sworn declaration of Mr. Whelan denying that he ever gave any money to members of the Mercier Government or others.

The Empire's little game of bluff is gradually exploding as may be gathered from the following, taken from the Ottawa Free Press of Monday last:

MONTREAL, Nov. 16.—On Saturday evening the Star and La Patrie published a copy of a solemn declaration made in July, 1889, by J.P. Whelan, the contractor upon whose authority the Empire recently published a sensational story to the effect that Whelan had given at various times large sums of money to members of the Quebec government and legislature for influence exerted in connection with the payment of his claims for extras upon contracts. Premier Mercier says Whelan's grievance against the government is that it has always refused to let him have contracts, and that on several occasions he has refused

A HASTINGS OUTLAW.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 12.—Constable Demore a few days ago narrowly escaped being shot down in Elzevir Township in attempting to arrest a desperate outlaw named John Ellis who has been a fugitive from justice for nearly a year and says that he will never be taken alive. When the constable knocked on the door of the farm house in which Ellis was hiding the latter shoved a revolver through the lookout in the door and fired at the officer. He was nearly blinded with the smoke, while the bullet passed through a part of his dress. The constable, with two assistants, lost no time in getting out of the range of fire. Three days afterwards Constable Beatty, Wilson and Demore surrounded the house and called upon Ellis to give himself up. The latter coolly walked out of the house behind a rifle and threatened to shoot the first man who attempted to arrest him. He backed into the woods and disappeared in sight of the officers, and nothing since has been heard of him. Ellis is a giant in size and a man greatly feared. Elzevir is a wild township in North Hastings, and mostly inhabited by lumbermen.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The election to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons for the South Malton Division of Devonshire was held yesterday and resulted in a victory for the Liberal candidate, George Lambert. The campaign in the division has been an exciting one, many of the meetings having been broken up by gangs of roughs who are charged with being in the employ of the candidate against whose interest the meeting was being held. The candidate of the Liberal-Unionists and Conservatives who stood against Mr. Lambert was Charles W. Buller, a cousin of Sir Redvers Buller, and an Irish landlord. The vote stood:—Lambert, 4,222; Buller, 3,010. At the preceding election the vote stood:—Lord Lyngington (Liberal-Unionist) 6,401, W. H. Walker (Gladstonian) 2,852. This great Liberal gain of 2,901 votes and the return of a Gladstonian to fill the seat previously occupied by a Unionist has caused great rejoicing among the supporters of the Liberal leader. Many messages and letters have been sent Mr. Gladstone, congratulating him upon the success of Mr. Lambert.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—The report published in England of Lord Stanley's resignation does not surprise the knowing ones here. The fact of the report appearing in that eminently respectable organ of things colonial, The Colonies and India, goes to confirm the impression that Lord Stanley has been led to ask Lord Salisbury to relieve him of the office of Governor-General, and that this decision of the English Prime Minister has leaked out by way of official circles. Lord Stanley has not been a striking success out here, if opinion in Ottawa counts for anything, and there are those to whom I have spoken who are in a position to know. No one ever had a warmer welcome or better prospects of becoming popular than Lord Stanley, yet it must be confessed that his warmest adherents are disappointed. I am speaking of his Excellency in his official and not in his social character. If it is true that Lord Stanley is being recalled it is time that the English practice of sending out to Canada as Governors the bearers of great names simply because they are great names, should stop. The appointment of a commoner of prudence and ability would be a welcome change. As it is at present the system is rapidly sealing its own doom.

The case of Mrs. Katherine Robinson and Miss Ida Green, who has been suing for the estate of the late Baron von Barnekow, has just been decided in favor of the claimants. Miss Green, the courts decide, is entitled to call herself the Baroness von Barnekow, and receives the whole of the Baron's property after his debts are paid. Years ago Baron K. THE MIRACLE CITY.

A NEW NAME SUGGESTED FOR HAMILTON.

Another Remarkable Case Which Would Indicate that the Name Would be Quite Appropriate.

The number of remarkable cures occurring in Hamilton is causing general comment throughout the country. To those who know the inside facts there is not the least cause for wonderment. The remarkable cure of Mr. John Marshall who was known to almost every citizen in Hamilton gave the Pink Pills an enormous sale in the city, one wholesale druggist alone selling 2,880 boxes in the past six months. People whose cases had been considered hopeless as was Mr. Marshall's, took hope from his cure, persisted in the use of the pills, with equally wonderful results in their case. And what is happening in Hamilton in the way of remarkable cures, is happening in all parts of the Dominion, and every day adds to the pile of grateful testimonials which the proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are receiving. Last week the Hamilton Times investigated two more cases, the result of which is told in the following article in the issue of Nov. 7th:—

The account of Mr. John Marshall's wonderful cure after suffering for years with locomotor ataxy naturally brought to light several other cases of almost equally miraculous cures in this city. Among the many citizens who profited by Mr. Marshall's experience and who have been troubled for many years with the same affliction was Mr. William Webster. For a long time he was in the flour and feed business in the Market Square, and for over ten years while in his office he was compelled to remain in a reclining position on a couch, covered with heavy buffalo robes winter and summer. It was with difficulty that he could make his way, even with the aid of crutches, to his residence, but a short distance from the store. He attributes his trouble to constant exposure at the open door of his store, carrying heavy bags of grain in and out, and when overheated and perspiring sitting over an open cellar way in order to cool off. About a year and a half ago he found it necessary to give up his business, owing to the fact that he was becoming utterly helpless from his terrible disease. In June last, on hearing of Mr. Marshall's case, he began to take that well-known remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and has been greatly benefited thereby.

Mr. Webster was seen by a Times reporter at his residence' Macnab street north, Saturday afternoon, and was not at all loath to speak about his case. "With the exception of this trouble with my legs," he said, "I have never been sick a day since I was 17 years old, and now I am 55. This locomotor ataxy is a terrible disease. For years my legs have seemed as though they belonged to someone else. As I have lain asleep on a winter night, one leg has fallen out of the bed and when I would awake with the cold I would have to feel around with my hand before I could tell which leg was out of bed. If I were to try to place my leg on a spot on the carpet within easy reach I could no more do it than fly. The pain at times has been terrible. I have lain awake night after night, week after week, alternately grasping each foot in my agony as the sharp pains like knife-stabs shot through various parts of my anatomy. When I was first attacked by pains in my feet some twelve years ago I tried several physicians but could get no relief. Paralysis then set in and I immediately consulted a well-known specialist in Buffalo, who told me that I was suffering from locomotor ataxy and could not get better. I came home again and on the advice of friends tried several hot springs, but with no effect, except, perhaps, to aggravate my complaint. I finally became discouraged and after two years' doctoring, I underwent an operation. I was placed under chloroform a gash two inches and a half in depth made in the side of each leg near the hip and the doctors put their fingers in the gash and stretched the sciatic nerves in the vain hope that such would give me relief. Since then, now over ten years ago, until June last, I took no medicine, whatever, and retiring from business, became so helpless that I could not walk a step without my crutches, and sometimes the pain was something awful. About June however, I got some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after using the first box felt such a beneficial effect from them that I continued to use them ever since with the result that the terrible pains that I used to suffer from have vanished, and with the exception of a gentle little dart at rare intervals, I might never know that I had ever suffered with them. Since using the pills I get sleep

Coal - Coal

I told you last year that I had come to stay, so here I am again, and it remains with the people to say how long I shall remain in the Coal Trade.

I take this opportunity to thank my patrons of last year for the liberal support they gave me, also, thank those who gave their sympathy. If those who supported me continue to do so, and those who were in sympathy give me their support this season I will continue to stay, but withdraw your support and I am out, and Coal must go back to $6 per ton.

If the other dealers say that I did not put down the price of Coal, why is it that Coal in Toronto the winter of 1890 was $5.50 and in Napanee $6? While in 1891 it was $6 in Toronto and $5.50 in Napanee.

My Coal this year is from the Wilkesbarre District, and is of a superior quality, pronounced by those who know, to be as good as Anthracite Coal as there is in Pennsylvania. Last year I was handicapped from the fact that I had only one chance to get in the coal market, while this year I had the chance of six firms to select from, and, therefore, have a better quality of coal than I had last year, and am prepared to sell as cheap as any other dealer in town.

Please call and inspect my coal before placing your order, and consult your own interests.

WHELAN'S SWORN DECLARATION
 made in July, 1890, 'years after the dates at which he now says he paid money to members of the provincial government and legislature:—
 I, the undersigned, John P. Whelan, hereby solemnly declare that I have never given or promised money to any minister or member of the legislature of Quebec nor to anyone else, to influence or to procure the influencing of any minister or member of the said legislature of Quebec, for the purpose of favoring the settlement of my claim against the government, and that I have never had any knowledge of any sum of money having been, directly or indirectly, promised or paid to any minister or member of the said legislature of Quebec for such purpose, and especially that I never paid a sum of ten thousand dollars, nor any other sum, to influence or to procure the influencing of certain members of the legislature in regard to the special credit voted at the last session for the settlement of my claim against the government relative to the construction of the Quebec court house.

I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing it to be true and in virtue of the act relating to extra-judicial oaths.

Dated at Montreal, the 18th July, 1890.
 (Signed), J. P. WHELAN.

Taken and acknowledged before me on the day and months above written.
 (Signed), N. PERRODEAU, N. P.

In the face of this solemn declaration, by Mr. Whelan himself, of the complete groundlessness of the charges against the Mercier government, which are not new, but which have only been dished up in a more sensational dress by the Empire and the other Tory organs to serve their present purpose, public feeling has turned strongly in favor of Mr. Mercier and his friends. The declaration utterly discredits Whelan, because it is clear that he either swore to a false statement in July 1890, or he is making false statements now, and Whelan is the Empire's only authority for its yarn.

ACTIONS FOR CONSPIRACY.
 It is reported that in addition to the actions for libel brought against several Tory papers by Mayor McShane and the cabinet ministers Col. Amyot, M. P. has been instructed to take proceedings against Whelan and others for conspiracy. The Liberals are thoroughly aroused and say they will expose before they are through, one of the most villainous conspiracies ever formed for the purpose of ruining the reputations of respectable citizens. Having to depend simply upon the statements of Whelan, who is utterly discredited now, the Conservative papers will be able to make but a poor defence.

ALL TO BE BAKED IN.
 Here is the official press account of the steps taken by the government. "This morning official instructions were given to Messrs. Dunbar and Amyot, crown prosecutors for this district, to immediately institute criminal proceedings against Mosher, Whelan and the whole gang concerned in the malicious connection and circulation of the last libel upon the Mercier government. All the parties, including the publishers of the Empire, Gazette, Monde, Presse, Courrier du Canada, etc., etc., the editors, correspondents, etc., the publishers and representative of every newspaper, in fact, responsible for the circulation of the slander or any other publication in the connection, are to be arrested without delay and brought down to Quebec for trial. It will be seen that there is going to be a big haul of the net, for the Mercier government are fully determined once for all, to put an end to the abominable system of concerted slander of which it is sought to make them the victims. The persecutions referred to are taken under the English common law against seditious libel; it being a high offence and misdemeanor to bring organized government into disrepute and to try to overthrow the existing institutions of a country by the publication of false and slanderous statements for the purpose of poisoning the public mind."

The couple lived together for a few months, but after the birth of a daughter the Baron yielded to the importunity of the girl and married her, thereby under the laws of California making his daughter though born out of wedlock, his legal issue. The Baron soon resumed his dissipated life, neglecting and finally deserting his family. His wife applied for and was granted a divorce. Baron von Barnekow subsequently returned to Germany, falling heir to the family title and estates. Without obtaining a divorce he married again. In 1887, a year before his Californian wife obtained her divorce, the Baron died. His second marriage was naturally illegal. Without knowing her husband was dead, Mrs. Green obtained a divorce, and later on married a sailor named Robinson. A sister of the Baron, Countess von Moltke, wife of a major in the army and a near relative of the field marshal, suspecting the truth, instituted a search, which resulted in finding the former wife and child of the baron and led to the establishment of their claims as legal heirs to the large though heavily encumbered estate.

Our Old Fire Company.
 "That was a gay old company that we belonged to, Joe, away back in '68, when you and I ran with the machine." Do you remember that big fire in Hotel Row, one freezing night, when fifteen people were pulled out of their burning rooms and came down the ladder in their night-clothes; and how 'Dick' Greene brought down two 'kids' at once—one in his arms, the other clung to his back? Poor Dick. He got the catarrh dreadfully, from so much exposure and suffered from it five years or more. We thought once he was going in consumption sure. But, finally, he heard of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and tried it, and it cured him up as sound as a flint. I tell you, Joe, that catarrh remedy is a great thing. I saved as good a man and as brave a fireman as ever trod the leather."

And to illustrate the old gentleman got up and walked across the room and back again to his seat alongside the reporter. "Now I couldn't do that at all before last June," continued he, and the pills are certainly the pleasantest medicine to take, that I ever tried. I would advise any one who is troubled with an ailment any way similar to mine, or who is suffering from any nervous disease, to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

THEY SELL RAPIDLY.
 Mr. J. A. Barr, the well-known Hamilton druggist, says that the demand for Pink Pills is something astonishing. Last winter he purchased one dozen boxes. This was his first order. Since then he has sold 2,880 boxes of his pills and every day the demand is increasing. He sells at least two dozen a day. The same story comes from other druggists in Hamilton.

The other day Mrs. Martin, of Ferguson Avenue, Hamilton, Ont., called at Mr. J. A. Barr's drug establishment and asked for a box of Pink Pills. She had a little girl in a perambulator, and while the mother was in the store the child climbed over the side of the carriage. The mother laughed over the incident and remarked: "If it was not for Pink Pills my baby would never have been able to do that. To those in the drug store Mrs. Martin narrated the wonderful cure which had been effected by Pink Pills in the cure of her infant. When about a year old the baby became paralysed, and anxious parents consulted the best doctors in the city, but their treatment was of no avail. The little one was not able to move hand or foot, and for a time the case was considered a hopeless one. Seeing an advertisement in the Hamilton Times, of the wonderful cures being effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, Mrs. Martin procured a box and before the youngster had taken all it contained, a marked improvement in her condition was noticed. The paralysis disappeared and the little one's appetite returned. The parents' hearts were delighted with the result. It was while buying the second box that the child scrambled out of the carriage onto the sidewalk. The mother told Mr. Barr that the paralysis had resulted from teething. A representative of the Times who investigated the case discovered that the little girl is now walking around in the best of health.

The proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills state that they are not a patent medicine but a scientific preparation used successfully for many years in the practice of a physician of high standing. They are given to the public as an unailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerve, two fruitful causes of almost every ill that flesh is heir to. These pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as surges, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will give speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of what ver nature. The pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box)—they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or McRistown, N.Y.

Advice to Mothers.
 Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. For children teething its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and take no other.

Dr. Borden, of King's county, Nova Scotia, has been unseated because one of his supporters paid a carter for taking a voter to his polling place, and Mr. Spohn, of East Simcoe, has been unseated because a prominent reformer endorsed a note to help a Conservative neighbor who had lost a horse, and after endorsing the note asked the neighbor to vote for Mr. Spohn. The two unseated men are Reformers.

Over A Century Old.
 Many cases are known of persons living to be over 100 years old, and a good reason why this should not occur. By paying attention to the health by using Burdock Blood Bitters when necessary to purify the blood and strengthen the system much may be added to the comfort and happiness of life even if the century mark is not attained.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE HINT WAS A BROAD ONE.

OME people indicate a desire to come into your house by rapping. But this is a loud, healthy, free-handed knocking—the father of all the raps—at the door of Leon Spanero's office. It tapered neither at beginning nor at the end. Without mezzo or diminuendo, it was a good square knock. It had a character.

Mr. Spanero understood it. He was expecting it. Immediately after the birth of the brilliant hospital scheme, he issued a note, as a result of which we have this pummeling of the panels. In fact Leon Spanero had been "sizing up" his own ability in the art of asking questions in various moods and tones—to secure either im or expressiveness.

He arose deliberately, stamped lightly upon the floor to relieve the draw upon the straps which held down his pantaloons, gathered the lace frills of his shirt front into a graceful fold, smoothed his yellow beard and passed to the door.

The dignity and grace with which the door was opened became the Spaniard most mightily.

The smooth gentility with which the knocker passed the threshold would have aroused the jealousy of a Frenchman.

"I have the honor of meeting—" suggested his affable highness, before the stranger could speak.

"Sir, I am Theophilus Perkins, Perkins, sir, of the secret service." Ah, ha! the polish of his manner was Frenchy, but his voice, like his knocking, was genre American.

"You are Mr. Perkins, a—" "A bachelor, sir, a bachelor! My business permits of no nonsense."

Yesterday the Tiger would have applauded the sentiment—to-day he silently ignored it.

"I wrote you a note, Mr. Perkins."

"You did, sir, you did."

"I did so as a sequence to this letter."

With this the polished Spaniard handed him a note.

It was postmarked New York, and read as follows, after an elaborate address:

MY DEAR SIR—Your note at hand. Our office can furnish no man at present capable of filling your demand. The man you want is in South America. You have in Boston now, working on a trifling case, a person who will answer all your requirements. He is familiar with the prominent European languages, and has worked up heavy business in the French service during the past ten years. You may reach him by addressing Theophilus Perkins, care

Banking House. We remain,

Very truly, your ob't serv't, etc.

Mr. Perkins signified his satisfaction.

"Now," resumed the Spaniard, in soft and pleasing tones, and a graceful wave of the hand, "I am highly pleased to meet you. I know the value of that indorsement."

Musing a moment he turned a soft and kindly eye upon the detective, and asked a question. It was asked easily, without significant tone—with no other accent than a twinkling of that kindly eye:

"May I ask you what European cases you have worked upon—say during the past ten years?" There was that in that genial twinkle of the eye that was significant; and upon his power to detect purposes thus conveyed Perkins had built up his craft and cunning. No change of tone, face or manner accompanied the perception, but he knew at once that all answer to that question was to be avoided. How little he realized at the moment that that twinkle of the eye had cost him five years of the most remarkable secret service work, and had cost the French government a hundred thousand francs, for his work alone.

As it is a part of the cultivation of a detective to lie, he replied:

"It was nothing—the New York bureau overestimates it. There was a misplacement of an old issue of assignats. I found them."

"At what time was that?" continued Spanero, but without the slightest approach to impertinence.

"That," observed the American, "was but five years since. As the loss was only continuous, enjoy it while seeking their homes, after the toll of the day is over and forgotten.

Amid the throngs passing either way, representing every nationality, shade and station, we discover our friend, Hubert Pinnie; for had it not become necessary for him to have two names, and did he not suddenly discover that Hubert may have been one of the old family names of which he knew nothing!

There is a great change in his appearance. He is no longer a boy—nor a vacancy clothed with limbs and eyes. An adventurous hirsute appendage is adorning his upper lip, and the clear, pale face and confident eyes are evidences of a developing manhood.

He was well set upon his limbs, and now he knew how to use them. There was no "lean to" expression to his body; nor did he follow his nose so closely.

At the same time, while Miss Helen would doubtless have talked with him as an elder sister, perhaps she would not have asked him to come to her home with her quite so freely, and if she should, the young man would have sauntered up to her skillfully, taken her arm, and told her that "the house had just bought a hundred and fifty ton invoice Jamaica through me!"

He is wending his way on the street—approaching a not very aristocratic quarter. Darkness is approaching, but before it gets to Boston town the young man has addressed a real pretty little girl with the familiarity of a friend—a miss who walks on two feet as straight and as comely as the queen's—and whose heart is not hollow—like her arm!

"Oh, Hubert, you are scary. It frightened me so."

"I was frightful, was I?" he said, in mimicry of her soft, pretty voice.

"Yes, you was," she replied, flushing slightly, "but it was better you scare me than that you laugh at me."

"Laugh at you, Winnie? Oh, no."

"Yes. You say 'was' at me. Hubert," she said, with her eyes on the pavement.

"Oh, Winnie!" he exclaimed, warmly, "I love to hear you say 'was' and 'is.' I come always to hear you say that, and see you, too. Your dialect is of the ocean—when it is smooth and beautiful."

"It is!" asked the girl, looking up pleased and joyful. A shadow had come over her life lately. Pinnie was growing up—up, among the rich and proud, while she was not improving her mind! Ah, the little thing didn't realize that in the reformation of her body she had fulfilled at least one of the demands which society makes upon women.

But that was all done for Pinnie. The simplicity of the unfortunate youth had brought him where the tender shoots of love might take hold on his affections as the tendrils of a vine—and not be displaced from its native trellis. But after his singular removal from the school, he might grow away from her, and in reaching so far from the trellis, the vine might fall and die.

So she said, when the surgeon asked her if she could stand a little pain: "He will be pleased with me."

"Who will be pleased with you?" he asked in the mental darkness of the moment. And Winnie only smiled and said she "was not afraid."

There was no chloroform in those days. But she was as happy as a lamb, beside its mother in a new clover patch, at the time of the horrible wrench when the ankle was broken afresh, and the box shoe adjusted! Tender little heart—what was all that terrible swelling to her. It was no more noticed of her than the moan of the sea affects the white gull swimming upon its bosom.

But when an artist was summoned and took the measurements of her short arm she almost broke her heart with joy—for she thought that perhaps that Frenchman was going to build her a new arm. And when he actually appeared with a nice black box, with a pretty lock and key to it, and right before her unaccustomed eyes took therefrom the most beautiful arm of enamelled something! Why, she could hardly keep the bed! It was all adjusted, and explained and the Frenchman went away. And she was alone—with the prettiest piece of cowhide, probably, the world ever saw—and so she lay there and crowned her little Gael songs like an infant—and dreamed of the coming day—the day when Hubert would see her—and take her arm!

"Yes, Winnie, your voice is like music to me," said the young man, taking that arm.

"Oh, Hubert, I am so glad to hear you speak this to me—and I am not lonesome any more."

"Aren't you lonesome when at work?"

"Oh, I am with Helen most of the time. That is, I think she is there and I don't look to see that she isn't. And I am painting, oh, ever so much better. I practice on other pictures now."

"I am sure my little girl, that we will all

A MOUNTAIN OF PROBLEMS
DESPISED BY SOME PEOPLE.

SOME WILL NOT EXAMINE TRUTH
BECAUSE THEY FEAR IT?

CONVINCING CANADIAN TESTIMONY.

There are truths which some men despise because they have not examined them, and which they will not examine because they dislike them. Important and mighty truths are continually being accumulated, all going to prove that our Canadian people have now in their midst the grandest agency for the complete cure of nervousness, sleeplessness, broken down bodies, wearied and befogged brain, dyspepsia and rheumatism; ever heard of in the Christian world. It is the great restorer of life that our forefathers so eagerly sought for but could not find. Providence in its own good time, through one of the greatest physicians of the century, gave to suffering mankind Paine's Celery Compound. Up to the present time its magnificent and heaven-blessed triumphs have been so many and so remarkable, that many jealous physicians, of the lower orders, have displayed its wondrous effects and will not condescend to examine truths connected with it simply because they dislike it, and fear it will take away their means of obtaining a living.

Shame on such low sordid characters! away with such men, who put personal gain before public weal and good?

We now call the attention of our readers to a few soul-stirring facts; and at the same time we inform those jealous people who dislike the truth, that full and ample proof can be shown them of the following cures:—

Mr. B. Hutchins, a well known Real Estate and Financial agent, of Montreal, P. Q., suffered for fifty years from neuralgia and rheumatism; he was cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs F. G. Fothergill, of Middleton, N. S. whose life was a long continued agony from sleeplessness, neuralgia and rheumatism, found a perfect cure in Paine's Celery Compound.

Captain Douglas proprietor of the Leland House, Winnipeg, Man., used Paine's Celery compound for dyspepsia, indigestion, and lassitude. He is now enjoying perfect health, and says Celery Compound beats all the efforts of the doctors.

Mr R. Allen, of Orangeville, Ont., was a martyr to rheumatism and sleeplessness; he found a new lease of life in Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr J. T. Dillon, chairman Board of City Assessors, Montreal, P. Q., was for many years a sufferer from indigestion, flatulency, and rheumatism. He has become a new man through the use of Paine's Celery compound, and now possesses a robust constitution.

Mr Joseph Manuel, of West Brome, P. Q., was given up by the doctors as incurable from dropsy; he was expected to die, but providence directed friends to try the effect of Paine's Celery Compound on the sufferer, with the result that he is now in good health.

Mr E. V. Rouke, of St. Martins, N. B., was a terrible sufferer from neuralgia; he was cured in a short time by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr Chas. E. Robertson, electrical expert and Mechanical Superintendent of the Royal electric works, Montreal P. Q., was a terrible sufferer owing to nervousness, sleeplessness, and overwork of body and brain. He is now enjoying perfect health and strength, owing to the effects of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs J. Howard, of Grenville, P. Q., was nervous, weak and faint; she found a new existence—a new life after using Paine's Celery Compound for a short time.

It does a work in the house that no other medicine can accomplish, and it always cures. It is the only preparation in existence that the best physicians are now prescribing and recommending to their patients.

Judgments were given in the Supreme Court yesterday in most of the election appeals from decisions on preliminary objections. The petitions against Messrs. Rider, Stunstead, and A. W. Ross, Lisgar, were dismissed, and the cases against the following will come up for trial, the decisions being sustained:—Messrs. Davies, Walsh, Perry and Yeo, Prince Edward Island; Mr. McLennan, Glengary; Sir John Thompson, Antigonish; Mr. Mills, Annapolis; Mr. Kaulbach, Lunenburg.

published in a department it was not published—it would have reflected on the government."

That Spanero was not satisfied was evident to Mr. Perkins. But whether satisfied or not, he unfolded the purpose of his call upon the detective for aid. His explanation was couched in the words of a philanthropist who delighted in doing good. It incidentally touched upon his hospital work. It revealed by inference that his interest and money had purchased the work of his former pupil, and had lifted her out of drudgery into the sunlight of a peculiarly happy existence—a revelation almost totally false. He wished not only to develop this beautiful genius, but he wished to marry her.

"And," he stated in conclusion, "I have but one rival, and I am not sure of that. You know the Norths—the old Van der Norths?"

"Oh, yes, I know of them—have never met them."

"Well," the Spaniard continued, "young North may be a rival. He has now gone south and west, I understand, for his health, I understand that. I more than half suspect, however, that he has gone to Florence. I wish you to go there at once by a packet which sails this evening from foot of Warden street, and, if my suspicion be correct, get to Florence before he arrives."

Minor matters were readily adjusted. The work was interesting to Mr. Perkins, who said so in plain terms, remarking that as he was "a bachelor, but no fool," a beautiful lady in the case was a point in its favor. As he stood a moment near the door, Spanero looked up and suggested:

"I told you that a lawyer named Wilkins, recently appointed consul, was practically a guardian, a guardian by choice and friendship."

"Yes, sir—you did."

"Well, I don't like him. He is in the way."

"But you said he was a man of double her age and recently married?"

"So, so," as you Americans say. It is true. But we have met. We all have our secrets in this world. I don't like him. I wish him removed."

"From the consulship?" queried Mr. Perkins.

"No, removed in the simplest sense," said Spanero.

"It is better to wait on Providence for such assistance."

"Yes, I wish he would fall overboard and drown," remarked the Spaniard, half to himself.

"As to his going over the gunnel, I could not be of service," said Perkins with his lips a little compressed.

"Er—ah—hum—er—no," rejoined the Tiger, a new light radiating in wrinkles about his eyes—"No, of course not—though a fellow-sufferer of mine, through his machinations, would put a small fortune into the hands of one who assisted."

"That a hint, Mr. Spanero—come, you know we secret service people are not afraid of plain talk."

"Did you ever see Lawyer Wilkins, Mr. Perkins?" queried the artist, then shooting over the question which was yet too obscurely outlined for reply.

"No, sir, never."

"His is a saintly face for a lawyer—by the way, do you think you can tell a hardened criminal by looking in the face?"

"I have thought so, if I can get the eye in a full, strong look."

The Spaniard did not exactly let his eyes fall, but he went to the stove and closed the draft.

"I wish," he said on returning from the stove, "that you would look Wilkins' straight in the eye and write your convictions. Of course I don't mean that you shall act on them. A man cannot always afford to earn a fortune on simple convictions."

"Not unless he is a hired butcher—it is out of my line," suggested Perkins quietly.

"Certainly, and I would not have you suppose for a moment that my observation was a hint, or even a suggestion."

When Theophilus Perkins passed out he was not pleased with his principal.

When Theophilus Perkins had closed the door Mr. Leon Spanero was not pleased with his employee.

"If Speters were a gentleman I would hire him to risk his hide in Florence. The hint was broad enough—a little too broad."

And finally, "It requires a large fortune to bribe Providence!"

What a blessed thing it is that Providence cannot be interpreted in advance!

CHAPTER XIX.

THE WORLD INTERFERES WITH WINNIE.

Summer time is come again, and the hot sun is disappearing to the westward of the city. As the price of day seeks his resting place a cool breeze comes in from the sea—

come out right in the end. We must wait!"

"It will be all right for you, Hubert."

"But not for you, sister? Not for you?"

"You are thinking of the surgeon and the Frenchman who fixed my foot and arm. Yes, it was good. But they was not for me."

Poor girl, she did not realize that it was "forward" to tell this. But she was happier. She did not know that she loved—but she did know that she wanted to be loved. And Pinnie did love the girl, too, and he did know it and he was not afraid to tell it.

"I believe you, Winnie. I believe you—and if I could suffer for you what you did for me, I, too, would be glad."

She looked up into his face. This was a revelation to her soul. A thin, vellovish flush arose to her brow, covering neck and throat. It was vellovish because the mantle of even had fallen. Else the tell-tale warmth would have told her story better than words. She had addressed herself to pride and fear—and love had obeyed the summons.

"Hubert," she said at last. "You are very good—but I do not know if I be right—if I speak right. But you are very kind to me."

"Am I, Winnie? Then it is because you are very good to me."

"But Hubert, think once—I am but a poor, selfish Gaelic girl. And I think of you—you who are a friend of the rich! Think where you was!"

"But Winnie, do you think the world I am going into would take away so sweet a friend as you are? Think of all you have done for me! Think of Helen! Are we so weak, sister?"

"I do not know," she said sadly. "It is in the world perhaps."

"Well, little sister, fear not. The big world will not get between me and my little painter. When I get to be a clerk on a small salary you will be one of the best known artists in the city."

Then a flame shot athwart her face, and the light extended out on the sea of life many a mile to show where happiness dwelt. And so their wooing prospered. Alas, if Conrad North could have taken a few lessons at this shrine! But then Winnie Webb was not—Helen Lamont!

Upon the ocean they sailed their different barques. Not all could bring their ships to port like the bonnie, dark-eyed widow, who was now under Italian skies with her lord—or like Pinnie, who thinks he sees the haven near by nor discovers the reef hidden by the waters upon which he is so gloriously sailing!

All this rhapsody of passion must come to a sudden halt. Pinnie is on his way home; but still in the quarter of the city where the lower ten thousand huddle, when a finger touch upon his shoulder awakens him from reverie. He turned quickly, and there, just as though he had a human body for the street and a ghoul's for night work, was the robber of the vault—Stub. His face was ashen-blue as before, but his eyes sparkled with a strange light.

Pinnie was half inclined to flee. He earned slightly pale, and under the dim street lamp Stub noticed it. "Boy, if I did not know that the blood of a hero was in your veins, I would say that you were afraid. How is it? Are you afraid of me?"

"Yes, I—think I am, and yet not that you would harm me. I am afraid of what you know!"

"Well, well, boy, you may be, but it is all nothing to you—nothing to you," he repeated dreamily, as though it were a very great deal to himself and he wished that it were not. "No, Hubert, you know more than I do if you know how you got into that Spaniard's clutches."

"You know Spanero then?"

"Yes, but the word once out of his mouth he took it back suddenly. 'Know him? No, I do not know him—I have heard of him.'"

"Who are you?" demanded the boy, suddenly, turning upon the strange man and stopping where he stood for his answer.

"Boy," replied the old man, after a long and painful season of coughing, "never ask that question again. You saw what I was doing. Let that suggest to you that who I am must not be known. But I have an interest in you, and that is why I stop you. I want to say that what must keep away from this quarter of the city."

"But I have a friend whom I love, with whom I have to walk this way if I walk with her at all."

"Mind what I say," replied Stub gruffly. "If you go through this street at this hour you run one chance in ten of getting safely home. Do you know a man by the name of Spanero? Do you. Then be wise. Good night, Hubert. I shall be close on your track until you get two blocks further on. Good night." And the old man turned on his heel without waiting to hear the astonished boy reply to his gruff farewell.

A CANADIAN GIRL'S SAD DEATH IN THE WEST.

Killed the Goat Too Hard.—The Disappearance of a Canadian Bookkeeper From Chicago Creates Intense Excitement—Murderer Almy Pleads Guilty.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—The coroner spent some time yesterday in investigating a rather sensational death which occurred in the lodging house at 225 Washington-avenue south. A young woman, apparently not more than 25 years of age, died yesterday morning, and the indications are that death resulted from abortion. The woman, whose name is said to have been Mary Batchelder, came here two months ago and until recently lived in Ninth-avenue south. It looks very much as if the fatal operation was performed by professional hands. Deceased was rather a good looking woman. She came from Canada, where her parents, who are said to be quite wealthy, now live.

MISSOURI'S STRANGE HERMIT.

Retired From the World, He Watches It With Interest.

KEOKUK, Ia., Nov. 17. A short distance west of Alexandria, Schuyler County, Mo., lives a man between 50 and 60 years old, who has been leading the life of a hermit for 30 years. His refuge it can scarcely be called a home—is in a cave under a large rock in the side of a steep hill. Here he passes the time in solitude. His only companions being books, papers and periodicals, with which, in some manner which he will not divulge, he keeps himself plentifully supplied.

His cave has the appearance of a cosy and comfortable room. It is neatly furnished. Around its sides shelves are built, upon which are piled many of the best works of the most noted authors. This strange genius refuses to divulge his name, or talk of his past history further than to say that his family was one of wealth, prominence and influence in a Southern State prior to the war and that his father served with distinction as an officer on the Confederate side. He shows by his conversation that he is a man of education and refinement. He is unusually well posted concerning current events, and for a recluse appears to take great interest in the affairs of the world from which he has withdrawn.

When pressed as to why he adopted such a mode of living he denied that the step

MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—The husband of Mathilde Grapin, a French-Canadian of St. Jerome, 53 years old, died suddenly last April and she nearly lost her reason. A day or two after the funeral she disappeared. She returned the next evening and said that she had been at her husband's grave and that while there she had been overpowered by a heavy sleep.

On Oct. 6 she left her house for church and did not return. Thirty-five days passed. A farmer named Morand then discovered her, delirious and with her hands and feet gangrened, lying on the ground.

It is supposed that she was attacked by a succession of cataleptic fits which lasted the 35 days. She had several similar attacks while she was a child. The story is vouched for by J. B. Rolland, Dr. Faucher corroborates it and says he will be surprised if she recovers.

George Cundiff Comes Back, Finds His Wife Married, Goes Away.

ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 17.—George Cundiff left his wife and two children in Joplin, Mo., 18 years ago and came west to make his fortune in the mines. The wife soon after is moved to Kansas City, and as the husband neglected to write she lost
all trace of him and gave him up for dead.
Three years ago she married I. D. Wimpy, and is now residing in this city.

Cundiff wandered into the San Luis country and made his home in mines and ranches. Three years ago he determined to find his family, and getting a clue of them in Kansas City he followed them to Salt Lake City. Denver and several other cities, and finally located his son in this city.

On coming here he for the first time learned of his wife's marriage, and after a short visit he returned to his home, decid-husband.

CAN EAT ALL THE TIME.

Insatiable Appetite of a Young Woman
the Curse of a Tramp.

NORTH PLAIN, Colo., Nov. 17.—The peculiar case of Miss Julia Hepburn, aged 25, who resides near here, is attracting the attention of local physicians. She has become possessed with a mania for eating, and the amount of food she daily devours is astonishing. She has to be fed every hour of the 24 and her appetite is growing. She seems to enjoy perfect health physically,
but she has become very nervous.

Her physicians think she is suffering from a nervous affection of the stomach and suggested that she be fed until she was glutted and that she be forced to take food until she turns sick. This was tried, but she ate all placed before her without signs of distress until the physicians gave up the treatment in despair.

Miss Hepburn, who is of a religious turn of mind, believes that she is suffering from a curse.

Last September she turned a tramp away
from the door of her father's house one morning, refusing to give him food. In departing the tramp told the young woman that God would curse her for her treatment of him. These words preyed upon her mind so that she reported the tramp's words to her parents, who laughed at her, but she grew moody over the matter, and about six weeks ago the voracious appetite came upon her.

Death Roll of a Day.

Rev. Canon Macnally, D.D., rector of St. John's Church, Bowmanville, died Sunday, aged 80 years.

Rev. Zachariah Eddy, the well-known Congregationalist, died at Detroit Sunday afternoon,
aged 67 years.

John Ferguson, registrar of deeds for Picton County, N.S., for over 30 years, died suddenly yesterday. He was in church Sunday.

John Gamble Geddes, dean for the Niagara district, died at Hamilton yesterday. The rev. gentleman has been ill with pneumonia for the past three weeks, but his death was unexpected. As it was thought he was gaining strength. He was 81 years of age, was pastor of Christ Church Cathedral for over 30 years and had resided in Hamilton for over 40 years.

An old servant of the Dominion Government in the person of Edward Storr, late curator of the House of Commons reading room, is dead.
Mr. Storr was suddenly prostrated whilst at work during last session and was never afterwards able to resume his duties. He was 72 years old,
had been 30 years in the employ of the Government, was a prominent Freemason and an earnest temperance advocate, holding office in the Grand Division Sons of Temperance.

A Buenos Ayres cable says: A tornado
last Friday night passed over the province of Santa Fe, 30 miles from Rosario. It caused great destruction to property and loss of life. The town of Arroyosoco was entirely destroyed. The number of deaths is reported to be 40, and of wounded 62. A train of 18 coaches was at the station when the tornado swept through the town. The entire train was overturned and many of the passengers were buried in the wreck.

The London Chronicle's correspondent at Shanghai says: "The capture of the Wei, near Foo Chow, on Tuesday by 15,000 rebels was a well-organized rising. The rebels were armed with repeaters and led by capable men. The outbreak was directed mainly against the authorities, though anti-foreign cries were heard. The officials were powerless. European residents are apprehensive of a spread of the revolt. The Pekin treasury has paid the indemnities agreed upon—£2000 to the sufferers at Wuchu and £4000 to the families of the Europeans killed at Weschui."

Accidentally Poisoned.

TORONTO, Nov. 17.—Major Dain of 99
Bloor-street west, died yesterday at 6 o'clock. He was not feeling well and he took some powders which he thought would relieve him. He supposed they were quite harmless, though the same preparation had been used as horse medicine, and contained antimony. He only lived a few hours.

Major Dain was a bachelor, and one of the best known men of North Toronto.
He was in the meat business with the brother at the corner of Yonge and Bloor
for nearly a quarter of a century and retired
some years ago quite wealthy.

Nicholas Murphy, Q.C., was notified this morning by the Department of Justice that Edward Cardo, a convict in Kingston Penitentiary, had been given his liberty.
He was a Toronto man and formerly lived at 81 Monroe-street. On Feb. 1, 1889, he was sentenced by Judge Rose to fifteen years' imprisonment for assault on his daughter. His release is due to a petition on his behalf which had been forwarded to the Ottawa authorities.

Town Over a Cliff.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Weymouth has a sensation in the arrest of a youth named Wise, 17 years of age, on a charge of murder.
Wise is one of the apprentices belonging to H.M. training ship Boscawen at present anchored off Weymouth. Yesterday Wise and another lad obtained liberty to visit the shore. They strolled along the cliff and finally reached a point where they were 70 feet above the narrow stretch of shore beneath. Suddenly Wise placed his hands against his companion and shoved him over the edge of the cliff. The lad Wise wended his way back to the vessel and told the officers he had shoved his companion over the cliff. Search was made and the body of the boy was found at the place indicated by Wise. He was alive, but died in a short time. Wise takes the whole affair nonchalantly, and laughs and jokes as though he had no heinous crime upon his conscience.

Sentenced for Life.

LOCKPORT, N.Y., Nov. 17.—Habib Saad,
the Arab peddler who was arrested at Guelph, Ont., on a charge of murdering a young girl who traveled with him, was found guilty of murder in the second degree. Yesterday Saad was brought into court and received his sentence at the hands of Judge Lambert. It was that he be confined in state's prison for the remainder of his natural life. Habib received his sentence with the utmost composure.

Rode the Goat Too Hard.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 17.—Hon. John Garver, one of the leading attorneys of this district, has been laid up with an injured leg, received while riding the goat with the secret society known as the Knights of the Globe. The injury is quite serious, as it is supposed that a blood vessel is burst, and he may never recover the full use of the member. The injury must have come from a heavy blow or a hard fall.

A Missing Canadian.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—William G. Brown, bookkeeper with the Illinois Steel Co. of this city, is missing. Some fears of foul play are entertained, as the man had some $40 on his person when last seen. Mr.
Brown is a native of Canada and there is a possibility that he may have taken a flying trip across the border.

ent. The police retreated to the hurricane deck, and finally gave up the attempt on the promise that the men would be produced in the police court on Monday.

Four Drowned, Eleven Stewards the Long Boat, Seven Saved by a Wave.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 17.—The British
ship Sarah went on the rocks at Carmanah Point last Sunday night in a fog and was soon dashed to pieces. Four sailors were drowned, being washed off the deck by great waves. For two nights the survivors were huddled up in the pilot-house on a piece of the deck remaining.

Ten men and the second mate succeeded after laborious effort in launching the long boat. Then, disregarding all pleas for help,
they deserted the ship, leaving the captain,
his wife, the first officer and four men to
their fate.

These were miraculously saved the next day by an enormous wave catching the piece of the wreck and washing it 40 yards into shore.

The ten mutineers were saved by a tugboat.

Killed in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—A special freight train, western bound, struck a rock slide at Farr's tunnel, about three miles beyond
Harrison, the engine upsetting Alfred Grant, who was riding in the cab, and was thrown into the Fraser River and drowned.
The body was not recovered. Mr. Grant came to British Columbia from St. George, Ont. His wife died about a year ago, leaving an infant son.

Has a Sister in Guelph.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 17.—A man named George Fisher died suddenly at the Regina Hotel on Saturday morning. He had been drinking heavily for some days past. He came to Vancouver about three weeks ago from Winnipeg, where he worked as a baker. He has a married sister near Guelph, Ont.

Drowned From His Canoe.

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 17.—The loss of the Rev. William Neilly by drowning near Jackfish is now conceded, as nothing has been heard from him since the 10th inst.,
when he was last seen in his canoe between Steel River and Jackfish. Mr. Neilly started off in a canoe from Steel River.
Searching parties failed to gain any trace of him or his canoe and they are now convinced that he was drowned.

Shot For a Squirrel.

WALKERTON, Nov. 17.—A gun accident
of a serious character occurred in the business back of the Walkerton reservoir. Some boys were shooting squirrels when one of them, named Frank Hurd, who was behind a stump, suddenly rose up and received a shot intended for the squirrel. It will probably prove fatal.

Searching for Treasure in a Coffin.

HALIFAX, N.S., Nov. 17.—The grave of the late John Macgregor of Askliton, who died a year ago, was opened a few nights ago, the coffin smashed and the remains left exposed until discovered by some of the neighbors. It was rumored after the funeral that some money, of which he was supposed to have considerable, was placed in the coffin. The securing of the money is supposed to be the object which actuated
the grave robbers.

Ohio Elopers Caught.

FORT ERIE, Ont., Nov. 17.—Officer Griffin of the Ontario Police Force Monday located the now famous Dayton, Ohio, elopers in the Sherman House at International Bridge. The young lady in the case is Miss Lulu Devore, a beautiful blonde 19 years old and an heiress. The man gave his name as Graham. His real name is George Aies. He is married and the father of two children. Miss Devore consented to return home.

Chat From the Capital.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—Mr. S. E. Dawson,
the new Queen's Printer, made an official inspection of the bureau with Hon. J. A.

was to require all clerks in the bureau to work till 5 o'clock instead of 4.

Hon. Frank Smith, Acting Minister of Public Works, reached here yesterday from Toronto.

Eggs for England.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—Dr. Ferguson, M.P., Kemptville, and Prof. Saunders of the Experimental Farm waited on Hon. George

A MASSACRE OF YEARS AGO.

The Murder of a Hunting Party of Indians by Sioux Near Pilot Sound.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 17.—The discovery of portions of a human skeleton among the buffalo bones that are piled near the railway station at Pilot Mound, Northwest Territories, brings to recollection a tragedy that occurred within a few miles of there 17 years ago and of which event the human bones are believed to be a ghastly reminder.

Three Indians, two men and a lad, had their camp in the woods, two miles north of Pilot Mound, and had spent the fall hunting and trapping on the river and lakes, obtaining a good supply of furs and game. The hunters were about to leave for a new district, and early one morning loaded their two carts and harnessed their horses, when they were suddenly confronted by seven armed Sioux, who had in some way discovered the smoke from the camp fire.

For some years hostilities had ceased, and, not expecting danger, the Indian hunters were off their guard and were taken completely by surprise, for it was evident that the Sioux contemplated murder and robbery, only hesitating lest other Indians should be in the vicinity.

One of the hunters, named Black-Nose, was a man of extraordinary shrewdness and activity and took in the situation at once, but pretending that he felt no suspicion or alarm he carelessly took up a kettle and advanced slowly towards a rivulet close by, as if to procure some water. One of the Sioux followed, with his gun, in readiness lest his intended victim should attempt to escape. When passing a clump of willow bushes Black-Nose made a sudden bound behind the rushes and was off like an arrow. The Sioux fired, but the stems of the bushes turned the bullets aside and the hunter continued on his way uninjured.

There was then a general discharge of guns. Some shots were fired at the escaping Indian, and other shots killed the boy and his father who remained at the camp. Black-Nose knew that his companions were murdered and that the whole band were after him, determined to destroy him lest he should carry intelligence of the attack. Being better acquainted with the country than the Sioux, and being exceedingly active, Black-Nose eluded his enemies by keeping in the thickest forests along the river, and crossing the Pembina somewhere near the foot of Swan Lake, he made his way to the Hudson's Bay post at the Red River, about eight miles distant. Having been without food or shelter he was in an exhausted condition.

A strong party of half-breeds and Indians, well armed, started out to pursue and

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

CLEVER DETECTIVE WORK BY PARIS POLICE.

Tim Healy Protects Himself Against Assailants—The Peace Congress—Deficit
in the German Budget—Mr. Gorst's Successor.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The police throughout the country have had a lesson in the case of Vaucourt, who beheaded his friend in Paris and hid the headless remains in a cellar in the Rue du Charbonne. Although they did not have the slightest clue to go upon, the detectives not only found the head but the murderer and extorted a confession from him within 50 hours of the discovery of the crime.

This was accomplished, namely, by the aid of Berthillon's anthropometrical system. The measurements were applied to the headless body and they showed it was that of Boudry, an old criminal. Then they found Boudry was a "pal" of Vaucourt and that he lodged in the house in which the body was found.

Berthillon's measurements also proved that Vaucourt was a criminal, and he was accordingly put through a severe examination, with the result of eventually terrifying him into a confession. This is, on all sides, regarded as being the most remarkable work of recent years. It will, of course, furnish a great argument in favor of the anthropometrical system.

CHERRY, RIPE.

Millais' Model for His Famed Picture at Home With Her Mother.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The sensational story cabled to America concerning a young woman, Blanche Barrett, who has become somewhat famous from having been the original model for Millais' well-known picture of "Cherry Ripe," proves upon investigation to be simply and purely a sensation, and has no foundation for the prominence that was given it.

Miss Barrett went to visit her aunt, living at Fulham, and her mother, becoming alarmed at her failure to return the same evening, reported the matter to the police. This happened on the 4th inst., and on the next day the young woman returned to her mother.

The cablegram referred to stated that "the police of London and the Continent have been investigating since Sept. 22 the mysterious disappearance of a beautiful young girl known as 'Cherry Ripe,' from the fact that she sat for

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE, Conway, Ar.

Castoria.

"Castoria is a very safe medicine for children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ANGELO, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

well armed, started out to pursue and punish the murderers, advancing as far as Calf Mountain, when a heavy snowstorm prevented further progress, and the pursuing party were forced to return. The Sioux captured the horses, guns, traps and furs of the murdered Indians, leaving the bodies of the slain to be devoured by the wolves.

NOW IN MONTREAL.

A Paris Banker Who Absconded Said to Have Been Traced to Canada.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—Paris papers yesterday announced that the defaulting Paris banker, Raynaud, had been heard from in Montreal, in fact he had written a friend in Paris requesting him to go on his behalf, Raynaud's bond for a position of trust in a Montreal bank. A coincidence in connection with this appeal is found in the fact that the letter was received by the friend here, in Paris, the same day that the magnificent remnants of his former palatial establishment in the Place de la Bourse were ruthlessly dispersed by the sheriff.

It is understood that the Paris police have communicated with the police of Montreal, looking toward the arrest of Raynaud and his return to France, where a large reward is still standing for his capture.

The Lepers Find a Harbor at Last.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 17.—The Chinese lepers brought here by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company from New York are to be placed in the lazaretto on Barclay Island near Victoria, and maintained at the expense of the City of Vancouver.

Knights of Labor.

TOLEDO, Nov. 17.—Saturday the K. of L. convention was in closed session some hours considering changes in the formula by which new members are instructed in the work of the different assemblies. Among the important matters settled have been those covered by the adoption of the following resolutions:

That any member of the order exposing or denouncing outside the assembly room any of the principles of the order shall be charged with violation of his obligation and on being found guilty shall be expelled.

That a committee of three shall be appointed by the general master workman to consolidate and codify the constitution, the general master workman to be ex-officio chairman of the committee; the constitution to be approved by the general executive board, printed and submitted to all locals in the order at least two months before the next general assembly, for their adoption or rejection.

The K. of L. in convention at Toledo yesterday declared in favor of the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday. It was decided to raise a mealeage fund by an assessment of five cents on every member each July to pay mileage of delegates to the general assembly.

Worth $150,000,000 at Birth.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, jr., at 3 a.m. yesterday. It was decided some time ago that if the expected child was a boy it should bear the now famous name of John Jacob. The infant belongs to the fifth generation which has borne that name in America. He will inherit $150,000,000.

Mitchell Wants Another Fight, Possibly With Jim Corbett.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Charley Mitchell returned from Liverpool yesterday. It is practically arranged that he and Slavin will sail for New York on the steamship Germanic Nov. 28. Slavin says his intention is to force Sullivan to fight. He has secured substantial backing and says he will not tolerate any bludge. Slavin is hard up and is working for money.

Mitchell also wants another fight. He intimates that he may possibly try Jim Corbett if the latter is not afraid.

When Slavin was asked about his brothers, now in America, he laughed and said: "They are both good boys, Jack is the better fighter of the two. If he chooses he can make some of the middleweights hustle or I am much mistaken."

Prize for Canadian Jockeys.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The seventh annual horse show began in Madison square gardens to-day. There was a big crowd of people to see the judging of the thoroughbreds, Arabs and hackneys.

The show was formally opened at mid-day. A feature in the opening hour was the grand parade of nearly a thousand and head of horses ranging from Shikhan ponies to gigantic Clydesdales.

During afternoon and night there was leaping by hunters and high jumping by some of the best of the most showy hunters in America. A special prize was offered for a Canadian bred black colt, 5 years old, 5 hands high, and extremely handsome. A fine specimen of a horse yesterday presented a record of 1-1/2 miles in 10 minutes. The Canadian bred horse to be ridden over the high jumps by men riders. Among the judges is Dr. Andrew Smith of Toronto.

"Cherry Ripe" from the fact that she said for Millais' celebrated picture of that name. Her real name is Blanche Barrett. It is reported that the girl has been abducted, and taken to the United States, and that the New York police have been asked to investigate.

NOSE BITERS PUNISHED.

An Asiatic Practice Upon Which Judges Have Declared War.

BOMBAY, Nov. 17.—The local judges have resolved to put down the cruel practice of nose biting, which is so often had recourse to by outraged husbands on their defenceless wives. In the country not long ago a man was sentenced to two years' imprisonment by the Chief Magistrate of the Presidency.

The judges of the High Court have reviewed this judgment and recorded their opinion that nose biting is such a fiendish act that the magistrates have committed the accused to prison for a longer term.

A Female Abortionist and Her Numerous Victims in France.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—The trial opened at Patignolles yesterday of Mme. Thomas, an abortionist, and 53 women who have submitted to criminal operations at her hands. Mme. Thomas has carried on her infamous business for 23 years. Since the arrest of Mme. Thomas the police have succeeded in tracking many of her former clients, chiefly among the working classes, including shopwomen, workmen's wives and domestics. Several deaths have also been traced to her criminal work. The prisoners filled three benches in the court. The trial will last two weeks.

Francis Joseph's Presage of War.

VIENNA, Nov. 17.—The panic on the Vienna bourse Saturday was in consequence of a remark made by the Emperor of Austria to the Polish leader, Herr Kaleski. "The famine in Russia," said the Emperor, "increases the chances of war."

This expression of opinion ran like wildfire through Vienna, and was being telegraphed from 2 to 6 o'clock at night everywhere. But by 6 o'clock there was an official denial of the assertion and an embargo was laid on all despatches containing the remark.

It has transpired, however, that the Emperor did make the remark.

Saturday's panic in Vienna was the greatest that has occurred there since the great collapse of 1873. Distracted brokers were continually rung up by telephone and ordered to sell at any price. Telegrams to the same effect poured into the bourse as fast as messengers could carry them, and hundreds of persons frantically hastened to the bourse in cabs, panting with impatience to throw valuable securities on the market at any sacrifice.

Pickering, Take Notice!

DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Boyle, who lived in the outskirts of Stewartstown, died suddenly. A coroner summoned a jury and went to the house, accompanied by a few policemen. The officials found Mr. Boyle, the husband, standing guard, armed with a shotgun and supported by his three sons, who had pitchforks and other weapons. The Boyles refused entrance to the house, and when the coroner attempted to force in Boyle fired. The posse withdrew hurriedly and the Boyles barricaded the house in anticipation of an attack.

A Mother's Awful Crime.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A woman living at Tichfield Crofton was summoned to appear in court yesterday for ill-treatment of her children, three girls. The woman became infuriated when the summons was served upon her and declared no court in England could compel her to obey its summons. She then entered her apartments, called her three children about her, and in spite of their struggles to escape cut their throats. After making sure that her terrible work was complete and that the girls were dead the woman cut her own throat. She will probably die.

Milan Steps Out.

BELGRADE, Nov. 17.—Ex-King Milan has signed renunciation of all his legal and constitutional rights in Serbia.

The story of King Milan's rule in Serbia, his troubles with his wife, Queen Natalie, and his abdication of the throne in favor of his son Alexander, have been fruitful themes for the newspapers of the world for a number of years past.

Liverpool Drugs and Oil Burned.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 17.—The wholesale drugstore of Evans & Co. was burned this morning and the loss in castor oil and cod liver oil alone is estimated at $75,000.

DUBLIN, Nov. 16.—Timothy Healy has become so alarmed by the active demonstrations against him that for the past week he has worn a coat of mail under his ordinary clothing.

Cold Weather.

Felt boots and overshoes are a necessity in this cold country. Old ladies warm felt house boots, wool lined rubbers, best quality of overshoes, new stock and low prices at Haines & Lockette's.

Gale Harrow Co.

After a satisfactory experience of three months duration this company will soon cease operations in this neighborhood for the winter with the intention of renewing the campaign in the spring.

Closed Down for the Season.

On Tuesday Capt. Collier had the water blown out of the Str. Reindeer's boiler for the last time this season. She made her last trip on Monday and is now tied up at Shipman's dock for the winter.

Worth Trying.

A Kingston pear-raiser says: "I pick my pears at four different times, and each picking select the largest fruit." He goes on to say that by this method he gathers nearly double the number of pounds of fruit that he would by taking all at a single picking, and besides gets much handsomer fruit.

The Eclipse of the Moon.

The heavens were so obscured by clouds last Sunday night that the total eclipse of the moon could not be seen very distinctly. The moon entered the shadow at 5 hrs. 35 minutes, eastern standard time. The total eclipse began at 6 hrs. 37 min., and ended at 8 hrs. 01 min. A similar eclipse occurred on November 4, 1873, and another will take place on Nov. 27th, 1909.

At the Top of the Ladder.

You may search Europe and America to find perfection and you will at the end of the search willingly admit that the FAMILY HERALD and WEEKLY STAR of Montreal beats them all out and out. The FAMILY HERALD has been increased to a wonderful size and the publishers are spending large sums of money in perfecting its literary excellence. As a news gatherer the FAMILY HERALD is really a wonder and it has a thousand features bristling with interest

S. S. Conventions.

The executive committee of the County Sabbath School Association are making arrangements for holding meetings of S. S. workers for local organization of municipalities at which Mr. Alfred Dey, secretary of the Provincial Association will be present as follows:—For Camden, in Camden East, Dec. 7th; for Sheffield, in Tanworth Dec. 8th; for South Fredericksburgh and Adolphustown, in Parma Dec. 11th; for Ernestown in Odessa Dec. 10th; for Bath and Amherst Island, in Bath Dec. 9th; for Richmond, in Selby Dec. 12th. Afternoon and evening meetings will be held in each place. Fuller particulars next week.

A Wonderful Difference.

Last Sunday evening Rev. C. O. Johnson stated from his pulpit that while there were as many men in Canada, and while they were subject to the same laws and the same punishments for law breaking, there were but 30 women in the Kingston penitentiary against 620 men. "The young women," he said, "very largely spent their evenings at home, or at the prayer

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—For fine Photos go to Hulett's.
—Brooches from 25cts. up at Arnotts.
—Wilkinson's plows at Miles S. Plumley.
—Rumour states the brush factory will soon be in full swing again.
—Nickle alarm Clocks at $1.70 at Arnotts, opposite Symingtons grocery.
—The Prince Edward election trial will probably be held before Judges Osler and McLellan.
—Do you want money to improve your property or buy a farm? Ask Miles S. Plumley, agent.

—At the Belleville voters list court the Liberals succeeded in 91 cases and the conservatives in 78 appeals.

—Inspector Johnston has given December 17th and 18th as the dates of promotion examination in East Hastings.

—Some of the Napanee boys are regular visitors to Deseronto on Sundays. Rumor wonders what can be the attraction.

—The Salvation Army barracks will be of brick and will cost about $1,500. The size of the building will be 36 x 65.

—The (Association) football tournament at Picton Thanksgiving Day resulted in a draw between Napanee and Picton teams.

—There are six gravel trains employed in carrying gravel from Foxboro for the double track between Ballantyne and Gananogue.

—An English lady declares that mustard plaster on the elbow will cure neuralgia in the face, on back of the neck will cure it in the head.

—A Picton buyer purchased 12,000 bushels of barley from farmers or concession 1, Ameliasburgh, one day last week. The price was 49 cents per bushel.

—Easy to use, pleasant and agreeable is the verdict of all who have used Nasal Balm, and better still, there is no case of cold in the head or catarrh that it will not cure.

—It is now a crime to print or sell raffie tickets. A Peterboro' printer was fined $5 and costs for the former offence and another man was fined the same amount for selling them.

—A minister in San Diego the other day startled his audience by saying: "I have forgotten my notes, and shall have to trust to Providence, but this evening I will come better prepared."

—Many suffer in silence from the troubles peculiar to their sex rather than consult a physician. Let them try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they will no longer feel life a burden.

—Potatoes should never be marketed unless assorted. Uniformity of size and appearance will benefit both the buyer and seller. It is the small potatoes that injure sales and return low prices.

—Johnny, let Willie have the tiddley winks and you keep the bagatelle board. You can't play two things at once. "Yes, you can. I know a boy who played hooky and baseball at the same time."

—Mrs. Nutbrown, stewardess at Albert College, Belleville, was seriously injured last Saturday by being pitched out of a buggy which collided with a runaway horse. Prof. Byer's daughter was also in the rig, but escaped uninjured.

—It is estimated that 3,500,000 steel pens are consumed daily. It is interesting to think what they do. For instance, they make love, write gushing poetry, scrape out the briefs in a breach of promise suit, cut and thrust at reputation, scratch out realistic novels and political editorials, chronicle sensations, puff this and belittle that, and in short, do more to make and break, to save and destroy, to civilize and degrade the human race than anything else under the sun.

—A partridge dashed through a pane of glass into the residence of Mr. Joseph Hoppes, Deseronto, one day last week. Mrs. Hoppes captured and killed the bird before it could effect its escape.

—Rev. D. J. Cameron of Woodlands, delivered two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Rev. McKennie, Vankle Hill, will occupy the pulpit next Sabbath, morning and evening.

—William Bell, Tyendinaga, on a visit to his sons Lewis and Thomas of North Fredericksburgh, on Saturday, while trying to catch a horse in the field, fell and broke his right leg in two places. He is seventy-eight years of age.

—Fisherman W. H. Joyce while drawing in his net caught a snag. Seeking assistance he drew in a big fish which proved to be a large anchor which has been a great source of trouble to fishermen for years back in the vicinity of Capt. John's Island.

—Last Sunday evening a memorial service for the late Miss Derry was held at the Bethel Church. Deceased was a member of the choir and great sorrow is expressed by that body. Her accustomed chair was draped in black during the service.

—The water in the bay still continues getting lower. The sailors complain bitterly of being often struck in the mud. The Cedar Mill at Deseronto had to be shut down for a short while last week and it was almost feared that the Big Mill would have to do so.

—The Orangemen, of Kingston, held a meeting prior to James Marshall's departure for Toronto and presented him with a gold watch and chain as a token of the esteem in which he was held by them. The Blues and Britons' band played "God Save the Queen" and the meeting adjourned.

—Mr. W. R. Aylsworth was in Bowmanville last week attending the meetings of the missionary committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference as representative from the Napanee districts. The business of allocating the different sums expected from districts was expeditiously performed. Mr. Aylsworth was honored by being appointed a member of the Dominion Missionary Committee of the Methodist Church which will be held in Ottawa next year.

—At Perry & Co's for spot cash you can buy coal oil, paints and oils, glass, putty, patent medicines, Teas, Sugars and thousands of other articles too numerous to mention here for less money than in any other house in the counties. Try them if you want to make your dollar last. They also kindly ask all those who are indebted to them to be good enough to oblige them with the amounts due before Dec. 1st. They will give you 25lb yellow sugar for $1.00. Other goods are equally low, 25c tea for 20c.

—Mr. S. J. Barker, the proprietor of the wharf at Northport, has recently had the old hull of the steamer Quail raised and removed from its position by the dock. Over twenty years ago the Quail plied between Picton and Belleville. Her time table shows that seven hours were consumed in making the run between port and port thus showing her speed to average a little over four miles an hour. An old resident of Northport claims that in stormy weather the Quail would not cross Big Bay and that three days in succession he boarded her with the intention of going to the city and that each time the captain was afraid to risk crossing the bay. An excursion of that date advertised the old boat to make the run from Picton to Kingston in 11 hours.

—Mr. David Baird, who lives about three miles from Tamworth, received word of the death of his eldest son, Mr. Samuel Baird, at Oaklands, California, on Tuesday 10th. The deceased gentleman spent the early part of his life on his fathers farm, but when he was scarcely out of his teens he left Canada taking up his residence in the Western States and for the past few years he conducted a large undertaking establishment at Tucson Arizona. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him, ever ready in the defence of the weak, and his friends in the wild and weary west tell innumerable stories of his many acts of kindness and bravery during his residence of over 20 years on the Pacific coast. He was 47 years of age and unmarried. No particulars of his death have been received except that he died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Butler, where it is supposed he had gone for the benefit of his health.

Programmes of the Mission distributed in St. Mary Magdalene's Ch. next Sunday.

interest in the Sunday schools and good reading, while too many young men, and old too, are found in the bar-rooms, the billiard rooms, or street corners indulging in tobacco and often profanity and obscene talk. It pays to keep up our churches and to make all its meetings pleasant and attractive to induce the largest possible attendance, especially of the young people."

Came Near Losing an Eye.

On Monday afternoon while Joe Murphy, a young lad employed in this office, was working in the back yard, Morris Wright, another young lad who was testing his skill in the yard with an air gun took a crack shot at Joe, the shot striking him just about half an inch from his eye, sinking into the flesh and causing the blood to flow quite freely. The Chief should put a stop to some of these young sports with their air guns, there being a number of them in town, who of late have caused great annoyance to street pedestrians. The young lads do not seem to be content by breaking all the panes of glass they can without being observed, but have turned their attacks towards passers-by on the streets. Other accidents caused by these dangerous playthings have also been reported to us.

Presentation.

At a regular meeting of the Napanee Lodge of A. O. U. W. held on Tuesday evening Bro. Frank W. Morris was presented with a handsome gold watch chain and seal, accompanied by a suitable address. The seal was a fine specimen of the jewellers art, having on the face the emblem of the Order with the letters "A. O. U. W." in blue enamel while on the other side were engraved the words "Presented to Bro. F. W. Morris by the members of Napanee Lodge No. 194 A. O. U. W." The seal was in the form of an elongated shield. Mr. Morris has removed to Kingston, where he has taken charge of the G. T. B. restaurant and the kindly feelings entertained for him by the brethren here were amply demonstrated on the occasion above referred. Bro. Morris replied in suitable terms after which an adjournment was made to Davis' restaurant where oysters and other good things were duly discussed.

Sydenham may be placed on the B. of Q. Ry.

On Thursday chief engineer Butler, superintendent Sherwood and K. C. Carter, of the Bay of Quinte railway, and Rev. Fr. McWilliams, drove over the proposed railway line to connect Harrowsmith with Sydenham. It is intended to build the branch and during the winter public meetings will be held to discuss the scheme. The new road, when built, will prove a great benefit to the people of Sydenham and vicinity. It will cause mining operations in phosphate, iron ore and mica to be carried on on an extensive plan. An English company has promised, if the line is built, to erect a large tile and brick works, similar to the works in England. Sydenham will not be the terminus of the road. It will be connected with the Thousand Islands railway. The bonus to be asked for will not be large and its payment will be extended over forty years. Through the efforts of Rev. Fr. McWilliams the Bay of Quinte railway was induced to consider the scheme.

Have you Seen It?

The new conference group just completed by our expert photographer Mr. J. S. Hulett is a dandy. The skill and good judgment with which the many faces are arranged cannot be surpassed, each and every one being an exact counterpart of the Rev. gentlemen themselves. Mr. Hulett has for many years stood high in the ranks as a photographer, but this time he has excelled even his own expectations and the quickness and exactness with which each photograph was taken more than astonished himself as well as the general public. The arrangement of the group is made so that all the faces are at the top of the card the Revs. W. C. Watch, sec., O. R. Lambly, Pres., and Wm. Burns, ex-President forming a centre piece at the bottom with the name of the group. At the sides is arranged the names, all numbered correspondingly with the number on each head. It is mounted on a card 20x24 inches square, the group itself being 16x20. Our townspeople should not miss this opportunity of securing one of the handsomest pieces of art ever accomplished in Ontario. The original from which this artistic group was made is now on exhibition in Perry & Co's window and 51x56 inches in size. If you have not seen it, go and do so at once, it is well worth your while.

A Railway Accident.

Last evening a railroad accident occurred at Newburgh by which a great deal of damage was done. It appears that men, working at Thompson's paper mill, pushed a car which they loaded, foul of the main line. When No. 5 express from Napanee came in the driver had his head out and saw the car in time to save his life. Two coaches were crushed in and damage to the extent of several thousand dollars done. The passengers were very much alarmed, not knowing the nature of the accident at first.

The Milk Question.

In consequence of a rumor to the effect that Mr Bicknell had tampered with his milk shipped to Newburgh factory, that gentleman wrote the inspector, and received the following reply:—R. F. Bicknell, Esq., Newburgh.—Dear Sir—This is to certify that I tested your milk delivered at Newburgh factory on the 19th and 20th days of October, 1891, and I found the milk all right. Your milk was given me as a sample with which to compare the milk of those suspected, and hence it was necessary to put it through the test. The milk showed standard quality and nothing whatever wrong with it.—Yours truly, Robert Rollins, milk inspector.

Respond Promptly.

Reader, we want to say a few things to you personally. At the same time if this does not apply to your particular case do not take offence. A number of our subscribers are yet in arrears. They doubtless intend to pay, but have delayed longer than is good for us. The amount due us by one is not large, but the aggregate is a considerable sum, the need of which we feel very much. The expenses of publication are very heavy, and have to be met promptly. Will those whose subscriptions are due or overdue do us the kindness of remitting at once? A prompt response to this call will greatly help the work in which we are engaged and in which we are glad to believe they also have an interest. Please do not delay longer.

W. M. C. Concert.

The concert in the Western Methodist Church on Tuesday evening was a decided success. It was given under Mr J. A. Abbs instruction, and although the wind was piercing and the weather otherwise rough it was well attended. Among the many singers was Miss Bertha Harris, of Hamilton, who has an excellent voice, harmonious and extremely sweet, and completely under her power. She rendered among others "On Venice waters" and was heartily encoered. Mrs Herrington and Miss Maggie Tilley in their usual exceedingly sweet way rendered "Reign of the Roses" which was heartily encoered. Mr Rockwell was up to the occasion, and rendered the ever popular "Ship on Fire" which was indeed touching both as to the topic and singing. The quartette "The day is gently sinking to a close" by Mrs W. S. Herrington Miss Maggie Tilley Mr J. A. Abbs and Mr J. Fred Tilley was a beautiful selection and was admirably rendered, the last note by the bass, Mr J. Fred Tilley being a stunner. Mr Abbs gave a beautiful ballad the "Bedouin Love Song" which was heartily encoered. His voice is strong rich and pleasing. Miss D. Lulu Meek in her sweet girlish voice rendered "When Mother puts the Little Ones to Sleep" so beautiful yet pathetic and soul stirring that in the rear of the church the very ticking of the clock sounded harsh and loud and Father Time should have walked on tiptoes to listen to the sweet strains. The performance by the united choirs of the different choruses deserves especial commendation, and reflects credit on Mr Abbs for the training and on the members for their brilliant execution. All present were well pleased and wish in some future time to hear as good.

—MANUFACTURED BY THE—

American Harrow Co. OF WINDSOR, ONT.

Over 100 sold in this vicinity and all giving the best of satisfaction
Following is what the leading farmers think of the Gale:

American Harrow Co., Windsor, Ont.

DEAR SIR:—I bought one of your Gale Harrows and Seeders, after seeing it thoroughly tested in all kinds of land and have used it on a field of sod, where the quack grass was very thick, and I never saw its equal for doing the work your agents recommended it to do. It leaves the trash all on top, exposed to the sun, where it will dry up. I think the Gale is the best general purpose machine ever introduced in this section, and would advise my neighbor farmers to see it work before purchasing anything in that line.

GEO. R. PARKES.

SELEY, Sept 5th, 1891.

This is to certify that the Gale Sulky Harrow and Seeder I bought from your agent, Mr. Milligan, has given me the best of satisfaction in every respect. I have used it on stubble ground, where the quack grass and thistle were very thick, also as a pulverizer and have no hesitation in saying that it is the best cultivator and general purpose machine in the market.

DAVID MARTIN.

American Harrow Co., Windsor.

GENTLEMEN:—Regarding the Harrow and Cultivator I bought from your agent, I will say that after seeing all other kinds work, I had no hesitation in buying the Gale, as I consider it far superior to any of them.

T. J. OSBORN, Lonsdale, Ont.

Married in British Columbia.

We clip the following from the "Weekly Columbian," New Westminster:—NORTH ARM, Oct. 31.—Thursday was looked forward to with much interest and many conjectures as to whether we should have gladdening sunshine or leaden skies, for Thursday was Miss Empey's wedding day. The morning broke dull and dreary, but gradually the clouds disappeared, and about noon the sun shone out bright and clear. As one o'clock was the hour fixed for the ceremony, the company that gathered at our bright little church, which was tastefully decorated with evergreens and autumn tints, wore smiling faces, and the old adage, "Happy is the bride that the sun shines on," was many times repeated. Promptly at the appointed hour, Alderman Sinclair arrived, accompanied by Mr. Morrison, who rendered efficient support during the ceremony. The bride, dressed in a neat travelling suit of mixed grey, and carrying a handsome bridal bouquet, entered shortly after, escorted by her brother-in-law, Mr. W. Carscallen, and followed by her bridesmaid, Miss McNab, the wedding march meanwhile being rendered by Miss Frank Sexsmith in a very creditable manner for one of her years. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Wood, assisted by Rev. Thos. Scouler, which being ended, Mr. Tattle stepped forward, and, in behalf of the trustees of the church, presented the bride with a bible, this being the first marriage to take place in the edifice. After receiving the congratulations of their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair returned to the home of Mr. Carscallen, where about thirty guests partook of luncheon and spent the afternoon most pleasantly. The newly married pair left early in the evening, carrying with them the best wishes of their friends for long life, happiness and prosperity. They will be absent about two weeks, visiting Victoria and the cities of the Sound. In the matter of presents, the bride was greatly favored. They were both useful and beautiful.

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff

DEAR SIR:—I have pleasure in certifying that we purchased a Gale Harrow and Seeder for use on this farm, have tried it thoroughly in various soils and conditions, and am well satisfied with the work it does.

Respectfully,
JAMES MILLS,
Pres. Ont., Agricultural College.

American Harrow Co.

GENTS:—I bought the first Gale Sulky Harrow seeder sold in this neighborhood and have used it on stubble that had not been plowed and it did the work better than a gang plow. I also used it to dig my potatoes and it did the work to perfection. In fact I consider the Gale an A No. 1 machine in every respect and think it will do all your agent said it would.

FRANCIS WHITE, Port Perry, Ont.

GENTS:—Having purchased one of your Cultivators and Seeders from your agent and used it on land very bad with twitch grass, weeds and thistles, and have dug my potatoes. I must say that I never saw its equal for the use for which the agent recommended it. I would advise every farmer who is not supplied to give it a trial, as I am convinced that it is the best implement of its kind in the market, at least I would not take twice the price of it for it if I could not get another.

DEAR SIR:—I tried one of your Gale Sulky Harrows on a ten acre field of sod where the thistles were very thick and it did the work so much better than any other implement I ever saw that I purchased it, and have always found it as good a machine as your agent recommended it to be. I also bought the seeder attachment and used it to sow the above field to fall wheat. It is now up and I never saw grain better or more evenly sown. I have a good drill nearly new but am convinced that grain as sown with the Gale will give the best results.

Yours,
DAVID BECKROFT,

LITTLE BRITAIN, Oct. 13, 1890.

DEAR SIR:—I bought one of your Gale Sulky Cultivators. After giving it thorough trial I am well pleased with the way it does the work. I have used it on hard land where twitch grass was very thick and it left the grass all out on top where it will wither and die. I also used it to dig 1½ acres of potatoes, and it did a first class job. I consider it the best general purpose machine I ever saw, and would advise my neighbor farmers to see it work before purchasing anything in that line.

Yours truly,

JONATHAN BRAY
